Who are we?

We are the Virginia Cooperative Extension Program, a federal, state, and locally funded program. Virginia Cooperative Extension (VCE) helps lead the engagement mission of Virginia Tech and Virginia State University, the commonwealth's land-grant universities. Building local relationships and collaborative partnerships, we help people put scientific knowledge to work through learning experiences that improve economic, environmental, and social well-being. We are credible experts and educators who provide information, education, and tools you can use every day to improve your life.

If you are a person with a disability and desire assistance or accommodation, please notify the Stafford Extension Office at (540)658-8000 during the business hours of 8:00am-4:30pm, Monday-Friday, five (5) days prior to the event.

Guy J. Mussey

Learn the methods needed to identify trees and shrubs in the Fredericksburg area.

Though designed as an advanced training course for Master Gardeners, anyone with a keen interest in woody ornamental plants is welcome to participate.

This hands-on training will take place on the University of Mary Washington campus, Chatham Manor, and at Cossey Botanical Park. The first class will be held at the Stafford Extension Office located in the Rowser Building at 1739 Jefferson Davis Highway, Stafford, VA 22554.

All the classes, except the first one, will be held outdoors. Bring your walking shoes and dress appropriately.
