

9th ANNUAL GROWING GREAT GARDENS

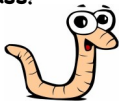

Saturday, March 11, 2017
8:00 am - 4:00 pm
21000 Northline Rd, Taylor, MI

AMAZING SPEAKERS

Includes Morning Beverages & Snacks
Choice of Bag Lunch w/Bottled Water
30+ Garden Related Vendors
Door Prizes & Raffle Tickets

Enjoy your lunch with this optional class!

LUNCH & LEARN

DR. LAURA DEETER

The Proof is in the Pollinators

Limited to first 150 people
Additional $10 with Registration

REGISTRATION INFORMATION

Registration $45 +$10 for Lunch & Learn option
$55/$65 after January 31, 2017

Register: www.taylorconservatory.org or: email pk48180@yahoo.com

Master Gardeners: 5 Education Hours
(6 with Bonus Class)

KERRY ANN MENDEZ

Acclaimed Garden Designer

Author of "The Right-Sized Garden"

Put Your Garden on AutoPilot

Right Size, Low Maintenance

Drought Tolerant

Heavenly Plants for Hellstrips

That piece of real estate between the sidewalk and the curb CAN be Heavenly beautiful!

BRIENNE GLUVNA ARTHUR

Horticulturalist/Author

Foodscaping Revolution

Ways to Include Food & Beauty
In Your Garden

LAURA DEETER

Ohio State University Professor

The Dirt on Soil Science

Don't Run, Don't Hide...it's not your high school science class

The Proof is in the Pollinators

(Lunch & Learn option)

Shop Our Extensive GARDENMARKET
Open to the Public 8 to 4 p.m.

Check out our new vendors!

Growing Great Gardens is a partnership with the Taylor Conservatory Foundation, Taylor Garden Club, and Wayne County Community College District-Downriver Campus to promote horticulture education.