

Please read this Privacy Policy as your use of the PEI CELTS GAELIC ATHLETIC ASSOCIATION website establishes your agreement to the Privacy Policy and the terms herein.

The PEI Celts Gaelic Athletic Association (GAA) is committed to protecting your privacy; all information you supply, including your e-mail address, is considered confidential and will not be shared with anyone outside of the PEI Celts GAA and the Canadian Gaelic Athletic Association without your knowledge or consent.

The PEI Celts GAA will only collect information for which there is an intended purpose. The collected information will only be used for the purposes stated. Any clients to which personal information may be released will have been carefully screened to ensure their Privacy Policies meet or exceed the legislated requirements.

We will not collect personally identifiable information from you, other than what you supply us on a voluntary basis. This information will be used strictly for internal purposes.

PEI Celts GAA will make every effort to ensure personal information remains current and is updated internally and with third party suppliers in a timely manner. Individuals are expected to update the PEI Celts GAA with any changes to their personal information. The information will only be updated when required for the intended, previously informed purposes. The PEI Celts GAA makes every attempt to display accurate information regarding the content posted on this website, and assumes no responsibility for typographical errors, or any damages caused by these errors.

By using this site, you signify your agreement to the terms and conditions of this Online Privacy Policy. We reserve the right, to change, modify, add, or remove portions of this policy at any time. Your continued use of the PEI Celts GAA website following the posting of any changes to these terms shall mean that you have accepted those changes.
