

PRIVACY POLICY

This privacy policy has been provided to inform the user of www.statewidemarine.com.au of the information that is collected and used by us.

This website for Statewide Marine is managed by SnowLake Creations and together take your privacy very seriously.

What Information is collected and Used?

- A) When a user visits this website www.statewidemarin.com.au, we collect un-identifiable information that allows us to monitor how our website is used for example, how long the visitor stays on the website. Again this information is un-identifiable and is only used for site measuring.
- B) When you choose to enter your details in our 'Book Now' form, you are providing your details to allow Statewide Marine to contact you personally. These form details are sent from our website to our email address admin@statewidemarine.com.au and stored in our system for future referencing.

At no time will we require sensitive information nor information for individuals under the age of 16.

We will not sell, trade or distribute your information to a third party without your consent.

Statewide Marine Services and SnowLake Creations utilises industry standard methods to safeguard your information.

Should there be any external links provided in this website, Statewide Marine Services and SnowLake Creations are not responsible for the content contained in these links.

Should you require further information regarding this Privacy Policy please contact Statewide Marine Services or SnowLake Creations to discuss.

www.statewidemarineservices.com.au

www.snowlakecreations.com.au