Nicki Kris is a Singer/Songwriter from North Carolina. Influenced by several of today's top artists, plus top female rockers of the past such as Anne and Nancy Wilson, Natalie Merchant, and Pat Benatar, Nicki delivers a unique blend of dynamic songwriting creating crossover appeal in multiple genres. Her musical compositions are filled with thoughtful lyrics, beautiful melodies, and powerful vocals that fully engage the listener from beginning to end

Nicki has been able to explore various musical styles over the past few years which has awarded her multiple Official Grammy Ballot placements in several categories for songwriting and performance over the past 3 years, as well as, several film and TV placements.

Nicki's latest single, 'You've Got A Hold On Me', co-written with Producer/Songwriter, Kevin McNoldy is a power-pop ballad with lush synthesizers, soaring vocals, haunting beats, and a mini-orchestra that could be a single from the 50 Shades of Grey soundtrack just as quickly as it could be considered a romantic 80's throwback single. Early reviews tout the single as Nicki's best work to date.

Nicki is an active voting member of the The Recording Academy and is currently working on multiple projects.

Superb singer/songwriter and multi talented. Influenced by a broad range of mixed genres she has the voice of an angel and she sounds like some of the great classic singers such as Cilla Black, Dusty Springfield, Pat Benatar etc, and accompanied by the modern music sounds of today really makes her stand out. Vocally supreme, Lyrically superb and the music is just fantastic. I am really into Nicki I believe with such talent she's going places. Scotty-D
