

PRESS RELEASE

Issued: 08/08/2016 - For immediate use

Rant & Rave support LGBT Youth Scotland

Rant & Rave Theatre Company are going to be collecting money for LGBT Youth Scotland at the end of their shows! The money will go directly to the fund for the publishing of LGBT Youth Scotland's: 'Good Sex... Is guide for lesbian and bisexual women' and 'Good Sex... Is guide for transgender and non-binary people'.

"Sexual Fears of a Modern Day Virgin" includes both gay women and a transgender woman, making the guides a genuine point of interaction between LGBT Youth Scotland and Rant & Rave Theatre Company. Uniquely, the trans woman in this show is played by a self-identifying woman - unlike some recent films we could mention! "Sexual Fears of a Modern Day Virgin" will change the way you think about sex and virginity forever. With three distinct storylines which only cross incidentally, this play about interpersonal struggles and relationship conflicts is set to be an honest take on modern LGBT life. This play normalises LGBT relationships and presents universal issues which also relate to the lives of straight people.

Rant & Rave is an emerging theatre company. They are comprised of mostly current and former UEA students. Their singular desire is to get the nation talking about sex, gender, and sexuality by breaking down the barrier of British bashfulness.

"It's relationships, theatricality, and even a bit of philosophy. What more could you want?" Oliver McFadden, Creative Director
