Our Moroccan journey is a glamorous discovery of a fascinating country. Traveling through Morocco, we will encounter a delightful culture that reflects both European and North African influences and traditions. Our luxurious tour takes us from the splendors of Rabat, Morocco's imperial capital, to ancient Fes. The colors of Fes, its grand mosques, palaces, and ancient markets serve as an exciting contrast to the force of the Atlas Mountains and the vast expanse of the Sahara Desert. We will visit UNESCO World Heritage Sites, explore Berber Villages and rural souqs in the High Atlas Mountains; take a camel ride at sunrise at a private desert encampment in the Sahara.

We will explore the jet-set oasis of Marrakech, and end our journey in Casablanca, Morocco's premier city. Throughout our travels; we will encounter the story and traditions of Moroccan Jewry, representing the grandeur of Sephardic Jewry. Our tour educator will shed light on the complex reality of the Jews of Morocco, living as a minority in a Muslim country.

We've included fine hotels, elegant meals, comprehensive touring of historic cities, bazaars and monuments, as well as opportunities to meet with members of one of the world's oldest Jewish communities.
