MARCH 2019

A Newsletter to Share News and Information

From the Beacon Team:

We are having a bit of a dilemma this month. As you may or may not know, the Beacon has always been self-sustaining with the revenue we produced from our advertisers. Our electronic and website versions have been full color and enjoyed for quite some time now.

Last month we put out our first all-color printed Beacon and it was received with overwhelming positivity. We got phone calls, emails and comments from both our residents and our advertisers. "So much more enjoyable to read now." "Read it from cover to cover." "Pictures look so much better in color." "We actually saw a jump in business with the color issue," were just a few of the compliments we got. People even remarked on the "feel" of the better quality paper. We were so gratified with the responses. So what's our dilemma?

Minuteman, our regular printing contractor, had given us a quote on what our job was going to cost us and it was only about $150. more than we had been paying for the blue cover and black and white interior. It made sense to try the full-color and new paper. We knew we could easily cover this increase and the community's response to it was well worth the expense.

Unfortunately, Minuteman had grossly underquoted the job. They did honor the price for the February issue but said they would have to bill future issues at their regular all-color price, less a 20% discount because we are a long-time, good customer. We immediately sent the job out for bids from other local and online printers and did our due diligence. What we learned was that even though the Minuteman price was prohibitive to us, it was the least expensive and most convenient vendor to use. It made the price of an individual copy $2.37 as opposed to $1.09 with no color and $1.40 for February's all-color issue. We decided to do this issue in color and turn to you, for additional ideas on how we can maintain the high quality and still remain self-sustaining.

Adding new advertisers will involve adding more pages to the Beacon and adding more money to the cost of printing it. The email, digital editions cost us not a penny more, thus the prevalence of online publications.

Rainberry is in the midst of a lot of change, with the hiatus of our beloved Social Club, changes in our club structures, as well as in our infrastructure. We want more transparency from our Board and management, and many of us want more community in our community. The Beacon has been a staple of Rainberry Bay since its inception. Should we go back to black and white?

Please call or email me with your suggestions, ideas and workable solutions. My phone number is 561-274-0868 and my email is: RainberryBayBeacon@gmail.com.

Enforcement Task Force

By Shelley Glass

The Enforcement Task Force, made up of volunteers from Landscaping and Management oversight committees, is about to begin reviewing properties that may have plantings that are not in compliance with our Rules and Regulations.

The team is beginning their training to identify violations that need to be addressed by the homeowner.

The initial phase will focus on resident installed plantings that are too close to the structures, fences, sidewalks, driveways, and mailbox posts.

These violations can cause costly damage if not corrected. You may receive a letter regarding your responsibility for any remedies that are necessary.

WE CARE

We Care is a volunteer support group which is dedicated to helping our friends and neighbors.

Meet Your Neighbor—Katy Mitrani

By Phyllis Berke

If I had to choose a person to be with in an emergency, it would surely be Katy. She's calm, caring and resourceful. Twice she encountered catastrophes while working in New York. The first time was in 2001, on 9/11, when airplanes crashed into the World Trade Center. The second time was in 2012 when Hurricane Sandy struck.

On 9/11/2001 Katy was at work as an assistant store manager at a Pathmark Supermarket in lower Manhattan. As with most of us, she suddenly became aware of the horror that was taking place not far from her store. Katy was the only store manager on duty that day. People had to run to get away from the Twin Towers. Many survivors walked into her Pathmark store which was located under the Manhattan Bridge on the east side. They were frightened and covered with ash, many without shoes. All public and transportation were cancelled that morning. At the same time, uniformed policemen and women descended enmasse in the parking lot and the store. Katy organized the employees to make sure the survivors had clean, well-stocked bathrooms where they could clean up. She found sneakers for those in need.

Katy had the deli department make hundreds of sandwiches and provide beverages for the First Responders until they ran out of supplies. From their drug store, she also provided emergency supplies such as bandages and flashlights. Katy didn't get home that day. She worked all night supervising the restocking of bare shelves. From the loading dock all she could see was smoke where the towers once stood. All along FDR Drive cars were being towed covered in soot and ash. As far as the eye could see there were emergency vehicles lined up ready to be being used.

During the day Katy made time to talk with her husband, Jack. On one of her calls to see how their four kids were, she couldn't speak. All she could do was cry and cry and cry to relieve the stress. After working all night she was able to drive home to Queens in the morning. She slept in the next day and could still smell the stench of the collapsed buildings. On the following day a police escort brought her back to the store.

A few years later, Katy went to work for Stop & Shop in a management position in their Human Resources Department. Her responsibilities included union and management issues, performance evaluations, training, hiring and discipline throughout four boroughs and nearby Long Island.

She soon had to handle another catastrophe, Hurricane Sandy which hit parts of Brooklyn, Queens and Long Island. Katy had to drive through many devastated neighborhoods to help employees who were affected when their homes were destroyed. Katy worked with "Helping Hands" an organization funded by Stop & Shop employees which distributed money with matching funds from the Stop & Shop corporation. Katy explained, "Helping Hands was for any employee that needed emergency funds to help them through a catastrophe." In this instance Katy represented both the employer, Stop & Shop, and the employees through Helping Hands, which was quite a challenge. It was her job to evaluate the employees' applications for help with money for food, clothing, shelter, etc. Her dedication and caring helped her to make the right decisions.

How did Katy get the strength and fortitude to deal with catastrophes as she did? It must have been her innate ability and a loving family. She told me, "I always had a little bit of an air of authority about me." Early on at Pathmark she was promoted to a full-time leadership position which eventually led her to supervise cashiers, bookkeepers and more than one hundred associates. She and Jack met at a Pathmark summer bowling league. After leaving Pathmark, both took jobs at Stop & Shop where they climbed up the management ladder together before they retired in 2017.

They were no strangers to Rainberry Bay. Jack's parents had lived here for many years and loved it. Both Katy and Jack come from large families and they even have a cousin living down the block in Rainberry Bay. Now Katy is an active member of our community. She dances with Helen Sohne's NIA class, tap dances with Shirley Gelfand, reads scripts with the drama club, plays bocce, bowls weekly, goes to book club meetings and current events and takes canasta lessons. As our paths crossed during these events I was impressed by Katy's calm and friendly manner and her willingness to take risks and responsibilities.

In an amusing example, at a recent drama club meeting, she took on Meg Ryan's role in the movie, When Harry Met Sally, in which she faked an orgasm as Sally in the hilarious delicatessen scene. She was funny and a good sport. Katy especially loves the bocce club which travels locally to compete with other clubs. She loves how warm and friendly the members of the club are. Katy said they are like family.

Despite all her happiness with her family and friends, it's still traumatic for Katy to talk or write about 9/11. It brings back memories for all of us.

Jews and Jazz

By Andrea Baron

The Yiddish club meeting on March 8 will be a talk and musical presentation on Jews and Jazz by prominent musician and educator Dick Lowenthal.

It will explore Jewish musicians' involvement in the world of American Jazz, including the connection between Jews and African-Americans in the performance, production, and promotion of Jazz music.

Selected musicians will include: Benny Goodman, Artie Shaw, Red Rodney, Shorty Rogers, Herb Alpert, Randy and Michael Brecker, and Stan Getz.

Lowenthal is the former Chairman of the Jazz Dept. at the Manhattan School of Music, and a well-known music producer. Currently a resident of Lake Worth, he also serves on the board at the Arts Garage.

The first jazz recording was made in 1917, but the musical form had existed for years before. Jazz is a blend of classical, spiritual, ragtime, march, blues, and popular music forms. Jazz originated in New Orleans and was likely performed first by marching bands. Its roots can be found in the musical traditions of both Africa and Europe. In fact, some people say that jazz is a union of African and European music.

Different Types of Jazz Music

- Ragtime. Ragtime was established in the 1890s.
- Chicago Style. Chicago style jazz music became popular in the 1920s.
- New Orleans Style. New Orleans style jazz music evolved out of ragtime and became popular in the 1920's. It is also known as "hot jazz."
- Bebop. Bebop music became popular in the 1940s.

Art Thrillers and Library Lore

By Andrea Baron

The world of fine art, from the point of view of artists, forgers, and art lovers, is the world of author B. A. Shapiro. Her previous best-selling thrillers, The Art Forger and The Muralist, deal with historical milieus ranging from the New Deal to German-occupied France in World War II.

Her new book, The Collector's Apprentice, is now available in our library. It will immerse you in post-impressionist Paris, with a collector who gets caught up in a murderous scheme and tries to recover her collection, as she clears her name and gets her revenge. If you like historical thrillers with a touch of art, love, and revenge, check this one out.

Another great new title is The Library Book by Susan Orlean. It is set against the backdrop of a catastrophic fire in the Los Angeles Public Library, and the loss of countless rare books, maps and documents. Interwoven with this story is the history and the personal stories of the library, all beautifully showing the important place and value of libraries in our society. If you love libraries you'll love this one too.

The newest February book and DVD titles are listed above. As always, we have multiple copies of the current Rainberry book club titles as well. Stop by the library any weekday from 1 to 3 p.m. and see all we have to offer.

Got furniture to sell? Got a place to rent for next season? Want to join a card or mahjong game? Our bulletin boards bring people and products together.

MARCH SCHEDULES

By Joyce Poses

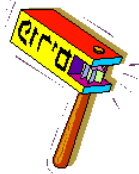

I propose, we add a new day to the week and call it "SOMEDAY!" Just think of all the awesome stuff that would happen on that day. Someday.

Sunday, March 24 from 1am -2:30pm, we will enjoy our Third Annual Outdoor Art show on the Tennis Center grounds. The show includes original works in all media by arts and crafts artists from around the community. The Tennis Center grounds will be transformed into an exciting outdoor gallery, welcoming arts & crafts enthusiasts. More information can be found on our flyers.

Artists and Crafters, look for the Classes application forms in the clubhouse lobby carousel. Fill one out, and deposit it with a check for $15.00, made out to "Rainberry Bay Classes," in the Classes Mailbox outside the Clubhouse Library. Final date for a table is March 19. A committee may have a free table. Looking for sponsors for a refreshment table. Folks, we offer many classes to become involved with. Let them not become "someday."

See you in class, Joy

Have You Considered Bridge?

By Joel Speiser & Bob Sherburne

Rarely—RARELY!—as the writer of this hopefully somewhat informative chronicle of Rainberry Bay Bridge Club activities, do I have the pleasure of reporting an event so wondrously enjoyable as I do today; namely our annual gala celebration! (Check out the other pictures on page 7, taken by DEB PETERS.)

Held this year February 8th at Benvenuto's, the tuxedo-clad wait staff was outdone only by the sumptuous meal they flawlessly served. Our gala organizer, PAM ROSS, delighted those present with spontaneity and prizes, and entertainment was provided by the dulcet tones of cabaret singer John Lariviere. Club Manager BOB SHERBURNE distributed bridge awards, gave thanks to club directors, and inducted the new board members. Overall, a grand time was had by all.

Club activities continue in high gear, with season-high attendance at our Monday evening ACBL-sanctioned games; guests are welcome—call BOB SHERBURNE at 561-414-5184 for more information, or ELAYNE CHASANOFF at 561-265-0609 to arrange for a partner.

We welcome new members JOYCE GOODIN and SHEILA GLICKSMAN; we're delighted to have you!

The game of Bridge is fascinating, mind expanding, incredibly enjoyable—and addicting!

21st Century Club

By Michael Klein, President

Our show in January, The Long Run (Eagles tribute band) was a raving success. Everyone had fun and many danced the night away.

On Saturday, February 16th, we hosted Roll The Stones, a Rolling Stones tribute band. They never performed here before and we were excited for the large crowd dancing once again to the music of one of rock and rolls best bands. And we were also able to share a lot of birthdays. We have many Aquarians here.

Green River Band (Creedence Clearwater tribute band) is playing in our Theater on Saturday, March 2nd followed the next week by The Wildfire Band.

Doors Alive (Doors tribute band) will light up the theater on March 23rd and we will close the season with The Flyers on April 6th.

BUT WE ARE NOT DONE YET. On May 24th, the Friday of Memorial Day weekend, we will be presenting SHA- BOOM. They will sing, harmonize, and Doo Wop you back to the 50's and 60's. You can jitterbug til you drop. Bring your snacks, food, wine, or whatever. Show runs from 7:30-10:00pm. Shorts are always ok and doors will open at 7:00pm.

WE ARE STILL NOT FINISHED . . .

We are looking into pool parties, oldies dance nights, DJ's playing tunes from the 70's, 80's and 90's, and a lot of other events in the off season, so our full time residents will have lots of things to look forward to in the summer.

Tickets for any of our shows are available every Monday and Thursday between 4-5 pm in the Theater. Contact Marcia Fields at 561-927-8550 if you cannot make these times.

Just the other day, someone asked me why I do this, as it is all volunteer and a lot of work. The reason is simple. I get tremendous joy and satisfaction from seeing my friends and neighbors smiling, dancing, and having a wonderful time at our shows. And I love the music.

Our aim is not only to provide musical events to our community, but to also bring the community together to enjoy themselves. Rainberry Bay has for several years become a community of 901 separate homes. Our goal is to be your home and your community again. That's why I do it.

Davis Cup 2019

By Paul Barron

Davis Cup Teams—2019

The 6th annual Rainberry Bay Davis Cup tournament was held Feb. 3rd at the Tennis Center under sunny skies. 36 residents represented six countries (Mexico, Canada, France, Israel, Italy and the USA) in a round robin format.

Canada edged out Israel as competition between countries was fierce but amiable. A delicious international buffet followed as each team provided food representative of its country. Thanks to Tennis Director, CHRISTY CHERRY, for leading us through the event.

CANADA
WINS!

By Gloria Goldman

We had a full house, over 60 people, at our February meeting. The program about Leonard Cohen was a fabulous event. Bev Cohen gave us a wonderful presentation about his life and his works. Everyone enjoyed the program, it was a memorable experience. Thanks to BEV COHEN & JIM WALSH, her husband, for a job well done. Thanks to IRV SCHULMAN for all his help.

Next month we will celebrate Purim with hamantaschen (three corner cakes) and a musical program. Mark your calendar for Friday, March 8 at 1:00 pm (new time) in the clubhouse. The music program will be presented by Dick Lowenthal the music director of the Manhattan Jazz Ensemble. The program is entitled Jews & Jazz so we will get to experience Jewish input in the world of jazz you don't want to miss this.

Thanks to our hostesses CLAIRE MAZEN & SARA TODD for refreshments, to BEV COHEN & ROSLYN BREGMAN for the cake, to RUTH TRIMMER, our greeter, to DEBBIE SILVERSTEIN, our Jewish events reporter and email expert. The Yiddish conversation group meets Tuesday at 10:30 in the clubhouse. Everyone is welcome to join in to speak or just listen..

Please join us each month - your support is important to keeping this heritage alive. All are welcome.

Theatre Arts

On January 29, 2019, Theatre Arts presented "LES DAMES." We had a packed house in the clubhouse auditorium. Everyone who attended had a fabulous time.

On Saturday, March 16, Theatre Arts will be presenting Susan Winter, "A Woman for all Seasons." Susan is an award-winning cabaret singer who has a signature voice with a youthful freshness. Susan has appeared in famed New York venues, such as Lincoln Center, as well as venues throughout the area and London. Don Edwards, conductor to the stars, offers musical support. Theatre Arts will present Ms Winter on Saturday night March 16th in the Rainberry Theater starting at 8:00 PM.

Tickets will be sold Mondays and Thursdays starting Feb. 11 in the Rainberry Theater from 4 to 5 PM. The cost of a ticket is $ 5.00 for members, $10 for guests.

March Madness Hits RB Bocce Courts

By Diane Maxey

Rainberry Bay is celebrating good times on the bocce court this season. First of all, with the return of our northern friends both courts are being used "to the max." January and February proved to be popular months with 35-40 players participating in regular games during the week and weekends. One recent Thursday night saw 50 people at the court! The Bocce Club is enjoying its biggest membership this year and continues to grow each week.

We are also celebrating a winning record (so far) in the Palm Beach County Bocce League, having won four of the last six matches, against teams at Baywinds (2), Villagio, Riverwalk, and Bellagio. With five upcoming games in March, you can catch the excitement at our last home league game on March 12 against Wycliffe.

A number of "members-only" events are set for March – Breakfast at Ruvens on March 4 and the annual Bocce Club Pizza Party on March 12. Each event is $6 per person and members can make reservations at the Bocce court during regular play (see below). Check the bulletin board there for details on these and other activities. Bocce court location – NW 29th Ave by Pool 2.

In addition to the game, one of the greatest benefits of belonging is the camaraderie among members. Friendships developed through the bond of bocce have resulted in large and small groups getting together to celebrate birthdays and holidays or to care for each other in sickness or grief situations. In other words, we are "family." Join us.

Team and supporters at Wycliffe.

Bocce beauties encourage each shot whether a hit or miss.

Diane and Vito going for the point.

Pickleball Regular Play (New Hours)

Tuesday ..... 7:00pm
 *Wednesday ..... 4:00pm*
 Instruction, Thursday ..... 5:30pm
 Thursday ..... 7:00pm
 Sunday/Funday ..... 4:00pm
 (Tuesday/Thursday @ 9 am eliminated)

I could hear the sounds of the pings and pops of dozens of paddles hitting plastic balls from across the lake behind the theater. As I approached the area where the sounds were coming from. I could hear the sounds of laughter and lots of people talking. It got louder and louder as I approached. It was the sound of people having fun.

On Sunday February 10, 32 residents came out to play Pickleball. With four courts being used the wait time between games was very short. The "Paddle Saddle" which keeps everyone in order of play was used. With refreshments and beverages everyone had a good time.

The point of all this is for all the non-playing residents to give it a try and if you like it, you like it.

You will never know until you do. Life is too short. Take advantage of the opportunity right in front of you, tennis court 11 to be precise. We have free lessons, free balls, and free paddles.

For many Rainberrians, Sunday really is Funday at Pickleball Park.

*New play time added.

Green Committee

by Char Lane, co-chair

THURSDAY FEBRUARY 28, 2019 we're hosting a presentation by the Florida Fish and Wildlife Conservation Commission at 6:30 PM in the Theater. Loosely titled, "Pests & Predators" the focus is on critters we don't particularly like having in Rainberry, including large iguanas, coyotes, foxes, snakes and poisonous toads. Join us to learn how to best deal with them if confronted and get recommendations regarding coexisting. Bring your questions.

THURSDAY, MARCH 14, 2019 at 10:30 AM we have a presentation focusing on native plants and butterflies at Green Cay Nature Center, along with a narrated tour of their grounds. Your participation fee to Green Cay would be $5. Plan to leave Rainberry around 10 AM. Green Cay is on the east side of Hagen Ranch north of Lake Ida and south of Flavor Pict.

SATURDAY, MARCH 30, 2019 is our final hazardous waste collection of the 2018-19 season from 9 AM - 11 AM in the Theater parking lot. Bring your old electronics, paint cans, pesticides, fluorescent light tubes, batteries, etc. Earth Hour is an annual global event (started in 2007) on Saturday, March 30, 2019 from 8:30 PM – 9:30PM. The purpose is for people world-wide to turn off their (non-essential) lights for one hour to help save the environment and fight climate change by conserving energy. "Reduce, reuse and change the way we live" is the theme for 2019. In 2018 almost 18,000 monuments (Golden Gate Bridge, Eiffel Tower, Statue of Liberty, etc.) in about 200 countries went dark for one hour, as did businesses and billions of people. Join in - turn off your lights and save energy.

Don't forget to recycle your foam egg cartons and plastic bags at Publix. And, use your blue (cans, glass, plastic bottles) and yellow (papers) bins to recycle properly. No plastics.

Please save your bottle caps and wine corks-both plastic and real cork, for a special mid-April Green Committee Earth Day project. As concerned, creative Rainberry Bay residents, we will collaborate on a large cork wreath for our community. With the colorful bottle caps we will create an original art mosaic to display in Rainberry Bay.

Please contact CHAR LANE or DEB PETERS if you have design ideas for the plastic bottle caps mosaic or the cork wreath. All ideas welcome.

Complete details will be posted in the April Beacon, Raindrops, and e-blasts. We want YOU to participate. Start saving your corks and bottle caps. It will take many hands, but little work, to complete these special art projects. Rainberry residents reduce, reuse, and recycle. Rainberry Bay cares.

When you drink wine, please save the corks. If you use any other products with corks, please save those corks, too. The GC is collecting them for recycling. Please drop them in the cork collection box in the Clubhouse Library. Recork (see Recork.org) reprocesses corks and is the largest recycler of cork in the US.

Block Captains

By Anne-Marie Blondin

Hello all residents,

ANNUAL COLLECTION: RB's annual collection for the Delray Police and Fire Departments continues for the next few weeks. If we have not reached you yet we will soon. We hope to be finished by the end March. We need collectors - if you have some free time and want to get to know your neighbors, give me a call.

If you wish, you can drop off your donation to the Block Captains mailbox (located next to the library) in the Clubhouse.

HOME INSPECTIONS BY FIRE DEPARTMENT: You can arrange a home safety inspection by the Delray Fire Department which includes review of fire alarms and replacement as needed. To schedule an appointment, call:

Joe Duffy, Public Education Specialist, 561-243-7407, Delray Beach Fire and Rescue

NEW RESIDENTS: Every new resident will receive a call from the Block Captains 'Welcomer' – SUSAN JONES or NANCY EFFRAIN - soon after you close on your home. Please allow us to meet with you to review RB's rules and the many clubs and committees that you may wish to join. We can provide much information about Rainberry Bay that will be helpful to you.

If you have purchased a home from 2016 to the present, please come to Rainberry Bay's Newcomers party on Mar 19 at 7 pm in the Clubhouse.

We MUST receive your RSVP so we can accommodate all attendees. For more information about this event, please check the back page of this Beacon or check online on Myrainberry.com (see the tab on the front page of the website).

From the Archive Committee

By Shelly Glass

We want to thank the residents who have shared articles, documents and pictures from Rainberry Bay history. Our most recent acquisition was from FAY BROWN who shared three meticulously curated scrap books detailing the 30 year history of WE CARE which serves our residents by lending wheelchairs, walkers, and other vital equipment.

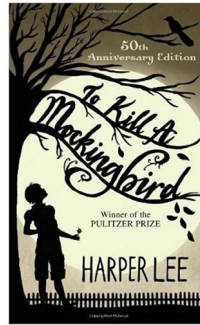

We have also received original sales material and floor plans dating from the 1970's when Rainberry was being built and sold.

We are asking long time residents to please share any historical paperwork or photos with the committee to be scanned and added to our data base. Once scanned the material will be returned to you. You can contact us at rainberryarchiving@gmail.com.

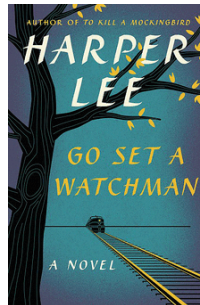

We also are in need of several volunteers with basic computer skills and a couple of hours a week to scan material into the data base. Please let us know if you can help.

Book Discussion Group

By Kim Rudolph

Come one, come all to the Book Discussion Group March meeting during which we will explore the writings of Harper Lee. Her classic novel, To Kill a Mockingbird, remains one of the most widely read books ever written on the subject of racial inequality. Written first, but published more than 50 years later, Go Set a Watchman, remains a bit of a mystery—was it meant to be a sequel, a prequel, or something else entirely?

Our presenter, LAWRENCE JOHNSON, will compare and contrast these books in new ways that will interest, entertain and provoke thought. We invite you to read one book, both, or neither . . . but please join us for what will surely be a lively discussion. All opinions are valued!

We are meeting March 7th, at 1:30pm, in the clubhouse. Limited copies of each book are available in the Rainberry Bay library.

Frequently Asked Questions

Q: What was the result of the Capital Contribution Vote?

A: The Amendment passed and had been sent to the attorney for filing with Palm Beach County. It will be noted for ongoing sales.

Q: I hear there will be a task enforcement for some rules regarding our properties. What is the reality?

A: The board appointed an Enforcement Task Force. It is made up of volunteers from Landscaping and Management oversight committees, and is about to begin reviewing properties that may have plantings that are not in compliance with our Rules and Regulations. The team is beginning their training to identify violations that need to be addressed by the homeowner. The focus will be on plantings that are too close to roofs, sidewalks, driveways, fences and mailbox posts as well as dead or seriously neglected plantings. You may receive a letter regarding your responsibility for any remedies that are necessary.

Q: How can I volunteer in Rainberry Bay? What opportunities are there?

A: Each month the Beacon lists all committees on page 4. When each new board is confirmed in March they begin looking for volunteers. Most committees have a one year term. The board chooses the chairperson and the chairperson chooses the committee members. The Architectural Control Board has a two year term and each of the three member team are appointed by the board. Consider which committee best suits your interests and qualifications. Clubs also want and need your help! Reach out to any board member to get more information on the committees and clubs to get more information. Rainberry Bay counts on our volunteers.

Q: Are the 2016 Rules and Regulations still in effect?

A: They are in effect and will remain in effect until the 2019 Rules and Regulations are approved by the board of directors and made available to all. They are currently being updated.

Reduce, Repurpose

By Lois Wiesler

You can buy a can of shaving cream at the dollar store, but if you have some already on hand you may be surprised at some other uses.

Remove stains on the carpet by spraying the area with shaving cream, wiping it with a damp sponge, and letting it dry. In the morning, vacuum up the dry mess and your carpet will look good as new.

Clean the surface of stainless steel appliances and faucets by coating them with shaving cream and wiping the area dry. Clean and shiny!

Applying a layer of shaving cream on glass can keep the glass from fogging. This tip is great for your bathroom mirror! Just cover the mirror with shaving cream and then wipe it off. You can also use this tip on glass shower doors, eyeglasses, and car windshields.

After painting your fingernails, rub shaving cream on your hands to remove the paint from your fingers – but not your nails. You can also clean grease or paint off of your hands this way!

Shaving cream makes a pretty good cleaner, but it's not too aggressive. This makes the perfect combination for cleaning jewelry and other delicate items! Just cover jewelry in shaving cream, rub it around, and then wipe clean.

If you need to clean a small spot in your oven, just grab the shaving cream and a scouring pad.

Squeaky hinge? Shaving cream makes for a quick and easy fix!

Next time you have a sunburn, rub some shaving cream on the burn. It may seem odd, but the cooling shaving cream will relieve the pain

Grandkids visiting? Make a fun and foamy finger paint by mixing shaving cream with a couple drops of food coloring. You can sit outside and draw on sliding glass doors and windows, and then just spray down the mess!

Going camping? Pack a can of shaving cream! You can clean sap off your hands, get gunk off of dishes, and even treat stains on your clothing.
