

M2MD Executive BIO

Craig Kaufmann Chief Financial Officer

Mr. Kaufmann is the Chief Financial Officer for M2MD Technologies, Inc., a position he has held since early 2015. Previously, Mr. Kaufmann was a Senior Vice President of Hughes Telematics, Inc. (now known as Verizon Telematics Inc.). He served as the Principal Financial and Accounting Officer of Hughes Telematics from its inception until after the company's acquisition by Verizon in 2012. During this time, Mr. Kaufmann was responsible for all aspects of the financial, accounting and tax operations of the company and played a key role in multiple public and private capital raising transactions.

Following the acquisition by Verizon, Mr. Kaufmann transitioned into a strategic role handling complex issues for the CEO of Telematics, including serving as strategic advisor to the leadership team of Networkfleet, Inc. (a wholly-owned subsidiary). Mr. Kaufmann also served as a strategic advisor for the company's international expansion in China, Russia and Europe, including managing all tax and regulatory matters.

Prior to Hughes Telematics, Mr. Kaufmann served as the Controller and Treasurer of SkyTerra Communications, Inc. where, among other finance and accounting responsibilities, he negotiated key financial terms of transaction that resulted in acquisition of control over Mobile Satellite Ventures LP, a partially owned joint venture, through the issuance of $1.2 billion of common stock and managed the process related to the spin-off of Hughes Communications, Inc. to shareholders. Mr. Kaufmann began his career as an associate at PricewaterhouseCoopers and was also the corporate accounting manager at Kozmo.com, Inc.

Mr. Kaufmann holds a bachelor's degree in business administration and a masters of accounting from the University of North Carolina at Chapel Hill and is a Certified Public Accountant.
