

Society for the Neuroscience of Creativity Privacy Policy

This privacy policy ("Policy") describes how the Society for the Neuroscience of Creativity ("We") collects, uses, and shares personal information of the members of its listserv ("Mailing List").

INFORMATION COLLECTED

We collect only the following information: your first and last name, affiliation, e-mail address and date joined. This information is collected when you register to the mailing list, become a member, were added to the list due to previous association, or register to an event organized by the Society for the Neuroscience of Creativity.

HOW WE USE THIS INFORMATION

- To provide you with information about the Society.
- To alert you to upcoming events or calls of the Society, abstract submission or registration deadlines.
- To communicate any facts, news, or research related to the aims of the Society
- If necessary, to contact you about your order, membership, or registration.
- To request your feedback about your experience with the Society or the events it organizes.
- To send you administrative communications, security notes, and updates to the policy.
- To respond to the comments and questions you ask the Society.

HOW WE SHARE THIS INFORMATION

Personal information will not be released or shared to any other parties.

Personal information may be collected by our service providers such as EventBrite when you register to events we organise or pay fees for these events. We do not collect or access your credit card information. However, our service providers may store such information on their sites. Information about how your credit card or other financial information is stored can be found on the websites of those providers.

PUBLIC MEDIA

Please note that any information you include in a message posted in our Twitter and/or Facebook posting area is available to anyone who visits these websites.

QUITTING THE MAILING LIST

Each of the emails you will receive from the Society will include an "unsubscribe" link at the bottom of the message that will allow you to opt-out of the mailing list. Please contact us directly at info@tsfnc.org in case you require further help, or e-mail directly beversdorfd@health.missouri.edu.

ACCESS AND MODIFY YOUR PERSONAL DATA.

You can access, update, and correct the information we hold about you at any time by contacting us directly at info@tsfnc.org. You can also request that we erase your data. We will comply with your request as soon as possible.

WEB SECURITY

The Society for the Neuroscience of Creativity uses website security measures consistent with current best practices to protect its website, email, and mailing lists.

The Society for the Neuroscience of Creativity listserv is located on secure servers at PO.MISSOURI.EDU, which is located at the University of Missouri in Columbia, Missouri, United States of America.

CONTACT INFORMATION

If you have any feedback or question, we encourage you to contact us at info@tsfnc.org.

Last Update: 16/06/2018

Any modifications to the Policy would be preceded by an announcement on our website and via e-mail to the listserv.
