

The Pieces of Eight

Two of the original Swinging Medallions left and formed a new group called the Pieces of Eight. They quickly gained popularity and recorded several beach hits with the most popular being “Lonely Drifter”. The group was known as one of the top party bands in the South, touring for many years in their Greyhound bus.

In 2003, the Pieces of Eight got back together and have played from Myrtle Beach to Panama City, FL entertaining at festivals, fundraisers, reunions and special events.

In 2006, Greg Haynes featured the band in his fabulous book, “Hey Baby Days of Beach Music”.

In 2007, the Pieces were voted into the Beach Music Hall of Fame.

In 2013, they were a featured act at SOS Fall Migration’s Fun Sunday in N. Myrtle Beach SC.

The Pieces of Eight have released two new songs:

“Back To The Beach” & “It’s SOS Time.”

The band will “blow you away” with their dynamic horn section combined with their superb vocals & rhythm section! They captivate their audiences with their “high energy” shows and enjoy the spontaneous interaction with them.

The POE will certainly make your event one to remember!!

We hope to party with you soon!!
