

#SHARINGSATURDAY RULES FOR DOG OF THE WEEK CONTEST

We are now calling Saturdays #SharingSaturday. Every Saturday we will post a new “Dog of the Week” who needs a forever home. You must at least share the post to your own Facebook page and comment “shared”, “sharing”, something along those lines so we know you have shared it. When you post to your own Facebook page, we will monitor that share to see how many shares you get from it. You are encouraged to share from our page to your friends pages too. We will not only count those shares from our page, we will monitor the shares from your friends pages. Should they get shares also, we will add those into your total count.

We will award a dog-friendly prize to the person who has the most shares the following Saturday when we post our next “Dog of the Week”. *In the event of a tie, we will enter the names into a drawing to determine the winner.

1. No volunteer, or board member of BPR is eligible for the contest. However, should they get shares from their post, we will take the name of the first person who shared, and monitor it to add up total shares as they will be eligible for the contest.
2. You MUST post a notification that you have shared the post so we can monitor it. Failure to do so will result in your name not being entered into the contest that week.
3. When the tabulations are completed on the share count, a PM will be sent to the winner to request address of where to send prize.
4. By entering this contest you agree to let Bull Luv Able Paws & Chi WaWas Rescue to use your name in the announcement of the winner.
