THOUGHTS TO CONSIDER

From a commentary on the gospel of John by Saint Cyril of Alexandria, bishop

I am the vine, you are the branches

The Lord calls himself the vine and those united to him branches in order to teach us how much we shall benefit from our union with him, and how important it is for us to remain in his love. By receiving the Holy Spirit, who is the bond of union between us and Christ our Savior, those who are joined to him, as branches are to a vine, share in his own nature.

On the part of those who come to the vine, their union with him depends upon a deliberate act of the will; on his part, the union is effected by grace. Because we had good will, we made the act of faith that brought us to Christ, and received from him the dignity of adoptive sonship that made us his own kinsmen, according to the words of Saint Paul: He who is joined to the Lord is one spirit with him.

The prophet Isaiah calls Christ the foundation, because it is upon him that we as living and spiritual stones are built into a holy priesthood to be a dwelling place for God in the Spirit. Upon no other foundation than Christ can this temple be built. Here Christ is teaching the same truth by calling himself the vine, since the vine is the parent of its branches, and provides their nourishment.

From Christ and in Christ, we have been reborn through the Spirit in order to bear the fruit of life; not the fruit of our old, sinful life but the fruit of a new life founded upon our faith in him and our love for him. Like branches growing from a vine, we now draw our life from Christ, and we cling to his holy commandment in order to preserve this life. Eager to safeguard the blessing of our noble birth, we are careful not to grieve the Holy Spirit who dwells in us, and who makes us aware of God's presence in us.

Let the wisdom of John teach us how we live in Christ and Christ lives in us: The proof that we are living in him and he is living in us is that he has given us a share in his Spirit. Just as the trunk of the vine gives its own natural properties to each of its branches, so, by bestowing on them the Holy Spirit, the Word of God, the only-begotten Son of the Father, gives Christians a certain kinship with himself and with God the Father because they have been united to him by faith and determination to do his will in all things. He helps them to grow in love and reverence for God, and teaches them to discern right from wrong and to act with integrity.

CONSIDERANDO TU ESPENSAMIENTOS

YO SOY LA VID, VOSOTROS LOS SARMIENTOS.

El Señor, para convencernos de que es necesario que nos adhiramos a él por el amor, ponderó cuán grandes bienes se derivan de nuestra unión con él, comparándose a sí mismo con la vid y afirmando que los que están unidos a él e injertados en su persona, vienen a ser como sus sarmientos y, al participar del Espíritu Santo, comparten su misma naturaleza (pues el Espíritu de Cristo nos une con él). La adhesión de quienes se vinculan a la vid consiste en una adhesión de voluntad y de deseo; en cambio, la unión de la vid con nosotros es una unión de amor y de inhabilitación.

Nosotros, en efecto, partimos de un buen deseo y nos adherimos a Cristo por la fe; así llegamos a participar de su propia naturaleza y alcanzamos la dignidad de hijos adoptivos, pues, como afirma san Pablo, el que se une al Señor es un espíritu con él.

De la misma forma que en un lugar de la Escritura se dice de Cristo que es cimiento y fundamento (pues nosotros, se afirma, estamos edificados sobre él y, como piedras vivas y espirituales, entramos en la construcción del templo del Espíritu, formando un sacerdocio sagrado, cosa que no sería posible si Cristo no fuera fundamento), así, de manera semejante, Cristo se llama a sí mismo vid, como si fuera la madre y nodriza de los sarmientos que proceden de él. En él y por él hemos sido regenerados en el Espíritu para producir fruto de vida, no de aquella vida caduca y antigua, sino de la vida nueva que se funda en su amor. Y esta vida la conservaremos si perseveramos unidos a él y como injertados en su persona; si seguimos fielmente los mandamientos que nos dio y procuramos conservar los grandes bienes que nos confió, esforzándonos por no contristar, ni en lo más mínimo, al Espíritu que habita en nosotros, pues, por medio de él, Dios mismo tiene su morada en nuestro interior. De qué modo nosotros estamos en Cristo y Cristo en nosotros nos lo pone en claro el evangelista Juan al decir: En esto conocemos que permanecemos en él, y él en nosotros: en que nos ha dado de su Espíritu. Pues, así como la raíz hace llegar su misma manera de ser a los sarmientos, del mismo modo el Verbo unigénito de Dios Padre comunica a los santos una especie de parentesco consigo mismo y con el Padre, al darles parte en su propia naturaleza, y otorga su Espíritu a los que están unidos con él por la fe: así les comunica una santidad inmensa, los nutre en la piedad y los lleva al conocimiento de la verdad y a la práctica de la virtud.
