

SILENT AUCTION

Saturday 30th September

A silent auction is where bids are made on cards for goods we would like to buy.

During the summer maybe you could identify a few possessions which could be sold to raise cash for the Church.

Jewellery sells well, but anything of reasonable quality would be gratefully received.

The event lasts for a few hours and there will be a café available.