Dear Friends

Well here we are into British Summer Time and it's hard to believe that we are so far through the year already.

We have been very busy in the Church over the past few months. In the lead up to Easter we had school Messy Church events for Drumpark and Greenhill and some of their work has been used to enhance the hall and the sanctuary. We have such a good relationship with the schools and are very fortunate indeed to be given so much opportunity to work with the young folk.

Of course we had our usual services in Holy Week starting with a Palm Sunday morning service which was quite vibrant and then a more reflective session in the afternoon as some of us met together for Café Church, and did an Easter Labyrinth. After that we had a Maundy Thursday Communion and then our Good Friday Service. The Easter Day service was joyful and really colourful as people came along with their Easter bonnets and bunnets (well done all who took part) and our regular Easter Egg Hunt. It was so nice to be able to celebrate the Risen Saviour together. My thanks to all who came along, who helped, and who made it a very special and happy Easter.

As I write this I am counting down the days til my holiday which I am very much in need of. I'll be taking myself up to Wick in the North of Scotland for my regular visit with my dear friends up there. Regardless of the weather I know it will be great to spend time just relaxing and spending time with folk who know me and understand me so well (a real tonic)

I hope that this finds you well and in good spirits. I know that sometimes life can be challenging, but remember God is always there beside you and He loves you so much that you need never be afraid or downhearted for long

Take care of yourselves and God bless you all
With love and prayers as ever
Fiona N

SUNDAY SCHOOL/YOUTH GROUP

The children all had a fun filled Easter starting with the Easter egg hunt in the Church and then enjoying lots of different arts and crafts in the Sunday School. They also got to roll their boiled eggs and learned the meaning of it all (although only choosing to eat the chocolate ones).

This is the Year of the Young People and as a Sunday School we will be working on the various monthly `Themes`. In April we were discussing `Equality and Discrimination`. We hope in the near future to come into the church and tell you all about it and show you the children`s work.

The Sunday school trip this year is going to Ayr on Saturday 2nd June. The cost is £10 per adult, Free for Sunday school children and £5 for all non-Sunday school children. The trip is open to everyone and if you fancy joining us please speak to any of the Sunday school teachers.

Kirk Session Tribute to Arthur Thom

Arthur was born and brought up in Burnbank Street in Coatbridge the youngest child of Mary and John Thom, with a brother Joke, and sisters May and Maggie. He enjoyed a happy childhood and was a much loved and doted on younger brother.

From a fairly young age Arthur worked at Kipsbyre farm helping to deliver milk and to look after the horse – something which he loved

After this Arthur secured an apprenticeship with the local joinery company JS Bruce and then continued to work there after he had served his time Many years later he bought the business from Mr Bruce a decision he never regretted. He retired when he was 65.

Arthur met Mary at the dancing at Coatbridge Palais. They married in October 1958 in Coates Parish Church. They had a good and happy life together. And they had one much wanted and loved daughter Carol.

A good father in law to John. Arthur was delighted and very proud to be grandfather to Emily and Findlay with whom he loved to spend time.

Arthur is remembered as someone who was always welcoming to anyone. A caring person who was always supportive, encouraging and helpful. Indeed if you had a problem Arthur was the man to solve it

Many of us here in the Church benefitted from that aspect of his personality over the years.

Someone who had a very friendly approach to others and who was always interested in what others had to say. A very sociable person with a good sense of humour and fun. Someone who was well known in Coatbridge and was well liked and respected too.

He loved horses and bought a number over the years.

He supported Carol and latterly Emily in their love of horses and would go to all the shows with them and be a very loyal supporter of their efforts.

He loved his holidays at home and abroad

He was a mason at Lodge 177 tho latterly he was not quite so involved.

But really Arthurs 3 main loves after his family were Airdrieonian Football Club, Victoria Bowling Club and his Church

He dedicated a lot of his time his love and his passion to all 3 and all of us who represent those organisations greatly benefitted from that.

Arthur is perhaps best known here in the church as a church member, originally at Coates then Clifton and latterly here at New St Andrew's. He was an elder for 50 years and only retired last year after much dedicated service.

He served on the congregational board. He was Property convener at Coates and Clifton and served on the property committee here at New St Andrew's. He attended the Men's Club at Coates and was a key member in organising the yearly jumble sale.

He did many a job for the church or if he couldn't do it he knew a man who could, and always got things done to a very high standard.

For us here at New St Andrew's he's the man who made our memorial table which gets used regularly and he fixed the Clifton communion table so we could put it in the Memorial Chapel. He made a step for the young ones so they could reach the microphone and he made me a beautiful Celtic cross just cos I said I would really like to have these.

A man who was very generous of his time and his talents and who served the church and his Lord in that same dedicated way which was reflected in his life.

Arthur lived what he regarded to be a happy contented and good life and would always say that he had been very fortunate over the years.

I think it is fair to say however that when he lost his beloved Mary a bit of the spark left Arthur for he had lost his wife friend and companion in life and things were never quite the same for him after that. He would often say that he was okay but that life just wasn't the same any more.

Arthur died on the 18th of January aged 83 years.

He is remembered as someone who showed real dedication, commitment and loyalty to the people and things which mattered most in his life.

The prayers sympathy and support of the Kirk Session are extended to Arthurs family

Kirk Session Tribute to David Ardrey

David was born and brought up in Swinton in Baillieston, the eldest son of Elizabeth and Adam Ardrey, with a younger brother Walter.

After leaving school David was in the RAF and was stationed at Aviemore on the administration side. He loved this work, and that time in his life, and had good memories from then.

After this David worked as a rep for Batchelors Food. He enjoyed his work and worked hard to do the very best that he could in it. He ultimately became a sales manager. During his time with Batchelors he went on trips to Venice, Amsterdam, Copenhagen, and New York – something which he really enjoyed.

After he was made redundant he had a job with Park Cakes in Cumbernauld for about 5 years. And continued from there to work in sales.

So really a salesman all his working life – and that was something which David really enjoyed and got pleasure from David met May on a train into Glasgow. They married at Browns tea room. They had 2 children Adam and Margaret.

David is remembered as someone who cared for his family and was a good provider. A meticulous and diligent person who liked things to be done properly and in an orderly way. A forthright and honest man, David was someone who told it how it was, and wasn't afraid to say what he thought. But also someone who if he did have words with you, didn't hold a grudge. Someone who had a good sense of humour and fun. As well as a bit of mischief and a glint in his eye. A sociable person who enjoyed the company of others.

David was very much a father figure to Alec and as a result was a grandfather figure to his children Elaine and Leslie, and to Elaine's children Archie and Rachel.

He was very proud to be grandfather to Hannah and Drew, Elliot, Claudia and Kay and great grandfather to Callum. He enjoyed spending time with his grandchildren when he could.

As far as interests go David loved all his holidays especially the ones abroad. He had a busy and active social life. He and May liked their evenings out.

He was a member of Drumpellier Golf Club where he knew many people. I'm told he enjoyed golf but especially enjoyed the social aspect of the clubhouse and liked going there with his group.

He had always been good with numbers and so liked playing dominoes and would regularly go to the card school at Gartsherrie.

He loved his cars over the years

A man of faith who started his life in the Brethren and then moved to Gartsherrie and ultimately New St Andrew's along with May, where he was a faithful attender.

He was an elder and took an active part over the years at Kirk Session meetings, never afraid to ask a question or make a comment.

David died on 28th January

David was then someone who lived a good life. He had family he loved and who loved him in return. A good working life. And leisure pursuits which brought him pleasure over the years.

The prayers sympathy and support of the Kirk Session are extended to David's wife May and their family.

Kirk Session Tribute to John Llewellyn

John was born and brought up in Coatdyke. The youngest son of David and Agnes Llewellyn with an older brother David. He enjoyed a happy childhood.

After John left school he went into the Army. He enlisted on 15th August 1944 and during his time served in Palestine, Egypt, Trieste and Malta. Whilst stationed at Pardasana John went to visit Jerusalem something which for him had a big impact upon him. He was demobbed in 1947 and on returning to Coatbridge John went to work at J&P Hurle brickworks in Glenboig

From there John went on to train as teacher. He taught technical subjects first at Airdrie Central and then at Coatbridge High School. He eventually became Principal teacher in technical subjects.

Affectionately known by pupils as Wee Llew, John was well liked and respected. John retired from teaching at 60 when as he said he felt he had done his bit for the school.

John met Grace when they were youngsters at school. After he returned from the army John met Grace again at Coatbridge Palais. They married on the 23rd March 1951 in the living room at Alexander Street. They had a good and happy life together. They had one son David of whom they were very proud.

John was very proud to be grandfather to Heather and Katrine. He enjoyed spending time with them and taking an interest in their lives.

John is remembered as a kind and understanding person who wanted the best for his family.

Someone who had a good sense of humour and fun and had a bit of a mischievous streak.

Someone who could be quite feisty and used to describe himself as a “stubborn wee soul”. For John certainly knew his own mind. A person who could talk to anyone and who always took a real interest in others and how things were for them. A man who was quite meticulous, and if he had to do something would do it to the best of his abilities. Someone who was always there for his neighbours and who was in turn very grateful for his neighbours who were there for him.

John's interests included watching old films especially cowboy films.

He enjoyed bowling at Dunbeth Bowling Club and also played at Victoria for a while. Latterly he liked to just go and watch.

He was a published author of a technical book for schools.

John was very well read and would often have 3 books on the go at the same time. He loved history of all sorts but especially Roman history.

And he loved his swimming and did this regularly with the same crowd – enjoying the company and fun they had. Latterly he just went to watch and to be as he said “tea boy”

He really enjoyed doing crosswords and puzzles and sudoku – enjoying the challenge if they were really difficult.

He and Grace enjoyed many good holidays together over the years

But John is perhaps best remembered for being a faithful and loyal member of the Church. He started out at Trinity Church and after this came to Gartsherrie. A faithful attender and someone who was well known and liked. Ordained as an Elder in 1952 at Trinity Church and then became part of the Kirk Session here. John was very faithful in his duties as an elder and was a good and diligent visitor of his district.

He was a member of the original Last of the Summer wine group who did many of the repairs around the Church.

John was devastated by the loss of Grace 5 years ago. While he continued to do many of the things he had once done, a bit of the spark left John and he was more subdued than he had once been.

However he was well supported by family and neighbours.

John died peacefully at Monklands Hospital on 25th January aged 92 years.

A man who loved his family, his church, and his Lord and who remained faithful to all three

The prayers sympathy and support of the Kirk Session are extended to John's family.

Kirk Session Tribute to Nessie Hall

Nessie was born and brought up in Coatbridge and was one of 2 children with a wee brother Hugh. She enjoyed a happy childhood. As a youngster Nessie would look after her wee brother and they have had a close relationship throughout their lifetime.

After Nessie left school she went to work in Woolworths in Argyll Street in Glasgow and worked her way up to being head cashier. In later life Nessie worked at Galbraiths in the Main Street and then went to Blairgrove where she was well remembered and liked.

Nessie met Tom Hall at the dancing at Coatbridge Palais. They married in 1950 in Gartsherrie Church. They had a good and happy life together. They had 2 children Janice and William of whom they were very proud.

Nessie was very proud to be grandmother to Laura, Emma, Graham and Stewart and great grandmother to Sophie, Charlotte, Lily, Lucy, Kai and Rylan. They all held a very special place in her heart and she loved to spend time with them and to take an interest in what interested them. Nessie is remembered as someone who was caring and kind. A very welcoming person who loved to look after anyone who came to the house. A very forgiving person who never held a grudge. Nessie always tried to support and encourage those whom she loved.

Someone who took a real interest in others and who wanted what was best – and if she could help to make that happen then she would.

A very down to earth woman who didn't have airs and graces but could just talk to anyone. She could be quite direct and told it how it was. Which meant you always knew where you were with Nessie. A good fun person who enjoyed spending time with family and friends. Nessie loved a party and a good sing song too.

Nessie loved her holidays at home and abroad

Nessie loved her golf and was a long time member of Drumpellier Golf Club, being president in 1990.

For many of us tho Nessie is best remembered as being a faithful member of this Church. A regular and loyal attender who was very committed to her Church and her Lord. An elder for many years Nessie took this role very seriously and I know that she was a faithful and much appreciated visitor to her district. And she was a faithful attender of Kirk Session meetings where she was always willing to contribute.

She was President of the young women's group which she thoroughly enjoyed. And she was a member of the Guild having been its president too. Nessie loved anything where people got together to talk and share stories and thoughts.

She was regularly at any fundraising event and could always be relied upon to provide the baking for any event. For Nessie was very much a go to Baker for the different fund raising groups over the years.

She was a member of the Christian Aid Committee something which she was very diligent about over the years.

Nessie lost her beloved Tom two years ago and this was very hard for her, for she had lost her best friend and companion.

However with the love and support of family she kept going albeit in a more subdued way. Her health deteriorated latterly and she was admitted to Deanston House for respite and received good care there.

Nessie died at Deanston House on Sunday 4th February

A woman who loved her family, her Church, and her Lord and who was faithful to all three throughout her lifetime.

The prayers sympathy and support of the Kirk Session are extended to Nessie's family.
