

DISCOGRAPHY

Part 1

Choirs in the United Kingdom

November 2016

HOW TO USE THE DISCOGRAPHY

Introductory Notes

- This Discography catalogues every known recording, whether in the Archive or not. If there is a blank, or no number after the letter prefix in the 'Shelf number' column that indicates the actual recording is not in the Archive.
- To standardise cataloguing, 'The' is not used at the beginning of any recording title

How to find a choir

Search by the location of the choir. If you are not sure of the location, then search by the name and it will cross reference the location.

How to find a London Choirs

Catalogued under 'London'

- If the choir is known by its Name only - it is catalogued under London
eg. London Margaret Street All Saints; London St Mary-le-Bow; London Savoy Chapel

Catalogued under London Borough or Suburb

- If the choir is known by its Borough or Suburb name – it is catalogued under that name
eg. Barnet St John : Hampstead Parish Church : Westminster Abbey, Westminster Cathedral

Shelf number prefix

- Compact Discs                      None
- Vinyl Records                      V                      (including CD re-issues and CD transcriptions of LPs)
- Cassette Tapes                      T
- BBC Choral Evensong              E (on CD)      EC (on cassette)
- 78rpm Records                      S                      (including CD transcriptions)
- DVD & Video                      D prefix

Legends after the Shelf number

- *      CD re-issue of an LP which is not in the collection
- r      CD re-issue and LP in the collection
- s      78rpm re-issue to LP or CD

- + Information on that recording to be found in the 'Recording Notes' Recording notes are an integral part of the Collection and are a mixture of historical information, anecdotes or personal comments by those involved in the recording or by myself.

Legends after a BBC Choral Evensong Shelf number

- v Issued as an LP (eg. E23v)
- s Issued as a 78rpm record (eg. E23s)

Legends after recording title

- [T] Trebles Boys' voices only
- [M] Men Men's voices only
- [SR] Solo Recital Solos with no choir taking part
- [SRC] Solo Recital with Choir Solos accompanied by the choir on some or all of the music
- [MT] Mixed Treble Recordings from the choir after the addition of girls' voices (included because of chorister solos)
- [CS] Choristers Seconded Performing not with their own choir and with guest conductor
- * after 78rpm Single sided record

Legends after name of choir

- * Mixed Treble Choir Included because of boy choristers solos
- + Roman Catholic Choir

Solo Recitals by Choristers and Boy Sopranos

A Solo Recital is the boy singing over 75% of the recording. For the purpose of this database a Boy Soprano sings on 78rpm records

Choristers

- Solos without choir [SR] after the recording title with his name
- Solos with Choir [SRC] after the recording title with his name

Boy Soprano recordings

- Solo [SR] after the title. Identified by name (bs) in the 'Director' column.

Record Company Catalogue Number

- The original catalogue number is always shown
- Re-issues are occasionally included in order to clarify a choir's discography

Release Date

This is the original release date and not of any later re-issues. The recording may have been made some time before the release date.

None-Commercial recordings

- Unissued Recorded but never issued. It may be either as session tapes or fully edited ready for publication
- Private Pressing Usually from a tape supplied by the choir and not for commercial release; pressed in small quantities
- Private recordings Usually a one-off recordings only, designed for private use

Performance

Recordings made outside the normal duties of the chorister, such as secondment by a Record company or private recording not related to the choir.

78rpm records

When no catalogue number is shown, this indicates there was no catalogue number. Occasionally 'No number' is written for the sake of clarity.

- Tests Test recordings which were never issued
- Transcriptions Recorded by the BBC from radio broadcasts onto 78s, either for archive purposes or for re-broadcasting, often abroad
- Private Pressed by a record company in limited quantities, usually from the choir/choristers own reel-to-reel tape
- Special Pressed (and sometimes recorded) on behalf of the choir/chorister and in limited quantities
