

BIO

Rodney Allgood is a long time entrepreneur who founded his first business at the age of 22, on the island of Maui back in 1990. He has since launched several successful businesses and has found that the main ingredient for his success has been his positive mindset and attitude that he keeps, as well as the power of his thoughts, his clarity of focus and daily habits. Since 2005, his passion has been to share his paradigms with others who are bold enough to pursue their dreams Rodney's passion is to teach as many as possible that with clarity, focus and determination, added with the proper supporting habits that anything is possible. He has been a keynote motivational speaker on conventions and meetings throughout the country as well as the former host of the iHeart radio program called "It's All Good!" Please welcome Mr. Rodney Allgood.
