Day 3 - Seoul (Meals: B, L, D)

We begin the day by taking you to a money exchange office, offering you one of the best exchange rates available for USD to Korean Won.

Itaewon

Itaewon is a unique place in Seoul where one can meet people of diverse nationalities and cultures. Due to the area's diverse inhabitants from all over the world, Itaewon has become one of the most cosmopolitan areas in Seoul boasting restaurants, shopping and nightlife that are equally diverse and cater to international tastes, attracting many other foreigners and tourists.

N. Seoul Tower

Visit the highest point of Seoul city and enjoy the 360 view of Seoul and the surrounding areas. There's lots of areas for great scenic pictures, lounge areas and daily performances held at this area.

KJ International Tours 1311 Kapiolani Blvd., Suite 204 Honolulu, HI 96814

Sarangchae at Cheongwadae

Cheongwadae Sarangchae is a Korean presidential exhibition center where visitors can learn about Korean culture and the history of former Korean presidents, opened in January 2010. It is a separate building located in front of Cheongwadae, the Blue House.

Blue House

The Blue House is the executive office and official residence of the President of South Korea. The signature markings of the Presidential Residence of the Blue House are its blue tiles. It is the first thing that catches one's attention upon entering the premises. The blue tiles and the smooth roof blend beautifully with Mt. Bugaksan in the backdrop.

Gyeongbokgung Palace

Built in 1395, Gyeongbokgung Palace is also commonly referred to as the "Northern Palace" because it is located furthest north when compared to the neighboring palaces of Changdeokgung (Eastern Palace) and Gyeonghuigung (Western Palace). Gyeongbokgung Palace is arguably the most beautiful and remains the grandest of all five palaces.

National Museum of Korean Contemporary History

National Museum of Korean Contemporary History is the first national modern contemporary museum ever opened in Korea and it showcases the nation's history in a comprehensive and structured way. The museum first opened its door to the public in December 2012 and presents over 1,500 relics benchmarking Korean history in the arenas of politics, economy, society and culture, beginning from the end of 19th century when the nation opened its ports to the outside world to today.

Gwanghwamun Square

Located at the main entrance of Gyeongbokgung Palace is The Statue of King Sejong the Great, the creator of Hangeul, the Korean alphabet and Korea's national hero, Statue of Admiral Yi Soon-Shin comes with its wide range of attractions. The Square is the walking path between Cheonggyecheon Stream and Gyeongbokgung Palace.

Day 4 - Seoul / Jeonju / Buan (Meals: B, L, D)

We'll be taking you to the country side of Korea, Jeollabuk-do province, located in the southwestern part of the Korean peninsula. Here you'll find the beauty of Korean mountains, beach and farmlands. Due to daily hotel check-out and to save valuable time to load and unload, we advise to travel light. Therefore, if you're traveling with 2 pieces of luggage we'll have it stored at our hotel in Seoul. You're gone for 2 nights only and you'll get your baggage when checking in at the hotel in Seoul.

*Seoul to Jeonju approximately 3 hour drive

Jeonju Hanok Village

Jeonju Hanok Village is especially beautiful for its roof curves. The roof edges being slightly raised to the sky is unique. Hanok houses are generally divided into two sections, Anchaе and Sarangchae. Anchaе is where women stay, also know as Gyusu room, and is furnished accordingly. Sarangchae is where the men dwell, and is referred to as the Seonbi room. Because men and women have to remain separate, Anchaе is situated deep inside the house so that it is secretive and quiet.

Hanbok Dress-up Activity

Hanbok is the traditional outfit of the Korean people. Koreans nowadays wear this outfit only on festive days or special anniversaries, but it was worn daily up until just 100 years ago. Dress up in vibrant hanbok and have photo taken. With a wide range of hanboks ranging from standard to royal and in different sizes and colors, you will find a beautiful set of clothing to make your day brighter.

Hanji paper making (At Jeonju Paper Mill)

Hanji is traditional Korean paper. Hanji is made from the inner bark of Paper Mulberry, a tree native to Korea that grows well on its rocky mountainsides, known in Korean as dak. The formation aid crucial to making hanji is the mucilage that oozes from the roots of Hibiscus. This substance helps suspend the individual fibers in water. Jeonju Hanji is made from specially selected trees and water, and carefully produced by Hanji masters.

Chunhyang Musical Show

The story of Chunhyang, a love story similar to that of Romeo and Juliette, set in the Joseon Dynasty, tells of the secret love between Chunhyang, the daughter of a former courtesan, and Mongryong, the son of a local government, who strive to overcome their differences in social class and other difficulties.

Day 5 - Buan / Muju (Meals: B, L, D)

Buan Lovers Point - Mud Beach

Known for one of the ideal places to see a Korean sunset, it looks out into the ocean with distant views of islands off the west coast shores.

Saemangeum – World's Longest Seawall

Located on the southwest coast of the Korean peninsula, Saemangeum is the world's largest man-made seawall, measuring 33 kilometers or little over 20 miles. It runs between two headlands and separates the Yellow Sea and the former Saemangeum estuary.

Gunsan Fish Market

Gunsan is a city in North Jeolla Province located on the south bank of the Geum River just upstream its exit into the Yellow Sea. The city is well know for sliced fish, or hoe and boasts a first-class seafood market. Situated right on the water front, this newer enclosed market has many fresh and frozen fish, crabs and shellfish, salted fish, shrimp and dried fish.

Seasonal Fruit Picking Activity

Here you'll get hands on activity to pick fresh fruits such as grapes, apples or pears. Due to seasonal changes and availability we may have a different course or activity.

Jinan Tap-Sa Temple

Tap-Sa Temple, in Jinan-gun, Jeollabuk-do, is an example of the amazing accomplishments an individual can achieve when properly motivated. Tapsa is a temple where a man named 'Lee Gapryong', a retired scholar, built numerous pagodas one stone at a time over a period of decades.

*Maisan near Jinan Tap-Sa Temple to Muju approximately 1:30 hour drive

Gangnam Station

Literally meaning "south of the river," Gangnam is an important commercial and entertainment district. The station is located at the western end of Teheranno, home to many corporate headquarters and impressive towers, while the area immediately to the north of the station is densely packed with bars, restaurants and clubs. There are also many shops in the subway station below ground.

Garosu-gil

Adorned with ginkgo trees, Garosu-gil stretches less than a kilometer in Sinsa-dong and dazzles visitors mainly due to its collection of quaint stores and its unique bohemian atmosphere. Garosu-gil presents a fascinating dichotomy of the old and the new, the coolness of modern city life and the warmth of days gone by with the array of open studios, ateliers, cafes, restaurants, bars, fashion shops and prop shops.
