Twenty-Fifth Sunday in Ordinary Time
Vigésimo Quinto Domingo del Tiempo Ordinario

Generosity Is the Secret to Our Joy

There is an old rabbinic parable about a farmer that had two sons. As soon as they were old enough to walk, he took them to the fields and he taught them everything that he knew about growing crops and raising animals. When he got too old to work, the two boys took over the chores of the farm and when the father died, they had found their working together so meaningful that they decided to keep their partnership. So each brother contributed what he could and during every harvest season, they would divide equally what they had corporately produced. Across the years the elder brother never married, staying an old bachelor. The younger brother did marry and had eight wonderful children. Some years later when they were having a wonderful harvest, the old bachelor brother thought to himself one night, "My brother has ten mouths to feed. I only have one. He really needs more of this harvest than I do, but I know he is much too fair to renegotiate. I know what I'll do. In the dead of the night when he is already asleep, I'll take some of what I have put in my barn and I'll slip it over into his barn to help him feed his children."

At the very time he was thinking down that line, the younger brother was thinking to himself, "God has given me these wonderful children. My brother hasn't been so fortunate. He really needs more of this harvest for his old age than I do, but I know him. He's much too fair. He'll never renegotiate. I know what I'll do. In the dead of the night when he's asleep, I'll take some of what I've put in my barn and slip it over into his barn." And so one night when the moon was full, as you may have already anticipated, those two brothers came face to face, each on a mission of generosity. The old rabbi said that there wasn't a cloud in the sky, yet a gentle rain began to fall. You know what it was? God weeping for joy because two of his children had gotten the point. Two of his children had come to realize that generosity is the deepest characteristic of the holy and because we are made in God's image, our being generous is the secret to our joy as well. Life is not fair, thank God! It's not fair because it's rooted in grace.

Peace, Fr. Jim

PAPA FRANCISCO

Audiencia General
Miércoles 20 de septiembre de 2017

Queridos hermanos y hermanas:

Hoy tratamos sobre el tema «educar a la esperanza», por eso usaré el tú, imaginando conversar con un joven o con cualquier persona dispuesta a aprender.

¡Donde Dios te ha plantado, espera! No cedas al desánimo. Recuerda que el enemigo que tienes que derrotar está dentro de ti. Cree firmemente que este mundo es un milagro de Dios, que él nos da la gracia de realizar nuevos prodigios, porque la fe y la esperanza caminan juntas.

Confía en Dios Creador, que llevará su creación a cumplimiento definitivo, en el Espíritu Santo que guía todo el bien, en Cristo que nos espera al final de nuestra existencia.

Nunca pienses que has luchado en vano, que al final de la vida nos espera el naufragio. Dios no nos engaña, llevará a plenitud, como una eterna primavera, la esperanza que ha puesto en nuestro corazón. No te quedes paralizado, levántate, camina, confía, Sueña. Sé constructor de paz y no de odio o división.

Ama a tu prójimo, respeta el camino de cada uno, sé compasivo y justo. Sueña con un mundo nuevo. Pide a Dios la gracia de ser valiente. Recuerda que Jesús venció por nosotros al miedo, el enemigo más grande contra nuestra fe. Reconoce que por el Bautismo tu vida pertenece a Cristo y él vive en ti, y a través tuyo, con su mansedumbre, quiere someter a los enemigos del hombre: el pecado, el odio, el crimen, la violencia.

Recuerda que no eres superior a nadie y que, como cristiano, eres hermano de todos. Cultiva ideales y sé fiel a ellos. Y si te equivocas, no dudes en levantarte siempre, pues no somos infalibles, y el Hijo de Dios ha venido para rescatarnos a todos. Vive, ama, cree, sueña.

Dios es tu amigo, y con su gracia, nunca caigas en la desesperación.

Palabras del Papa al pueblo Mexicano

Ayer un terrible terremoto ha asolado México, —vi que hay muchos mexicanos hoy entre ustedes— causando numerosas víctimas y daños materiales.

En este momento de dolor, quiero manifestar mi cercanía y oración a toda la querida población mexicana.

Elevemos todos juntos nuestra plegaria a Dios para que acoja en su seno a los que han perdido la vida y conforte a los heridos, sus familiares y a todos los damnificados. Pidamos también por todo el personal de servicio y de socorro que prestan su ayuda a todas las personas afectadas.

Que nuestra Madre la Virgen de Guadalupe con mucha ternura esté cerca de la querida nación mexicana.
