See My Hands and Feet— Luke 24:39

Tolstoy once told a story of a czar and czarina who wished to honor the members of their court with a banquet. They sent out invitations and requested that the guests come with the invitations in their hands.

When they arrived at the banquet, the guests were surprised to discover that the guards did not look at their invitations at all. Instead, they examined their hands. The guests wondered about this, but they were also curious to see who the czar and czarina would choose as the guest of honor to sit between them at the banquet. They were flabbergasted to see that it was the old scrub woman who had to keep the palace clean for years. The guards, having examined her hands, declared, "You have the proper credentials to be the guest of honor. We can see your love and loyalty in your hands."

A similar story is told of the great missionary to Burma, Adoniram Judson. Judson went to the king of Burma to ask him if he might have permission to go to a certain city to preach. The king, a pagan, but quite an intelligent man responded, "I'm willing for a dozen preachers to go but not you, not with those hands. My people are not such fools as to take notice of your preaching, but they will note those calloused, work-scarred hands."

After Jesus's crucifixion, his disciples were trying to sort out the meaning of the reports they had been receiving about appearances of the risen Christ. It was most confusing to them. Was it a hoax? They were not completely immune to superstition. Perhaps it was some kind of ghost. Suddenly, it happened. Jesus, himself, stood among them. The disciples were startled and frightened. Then Jesus said to them, "Why are you troubled, and why do questionings rise in your hearts? See my hands and feet, that it is I, myself..."

"The response of the disciples is a sermon in itself. Luke tells us that they "disbelieved for joy..." It was simply too wonderful to be true. He was alive and he was worth believing. Some persons still have that problem today. Many desperately want to believe, but something holds them back. "See my hands and my feet..."

1. It Is Difficult to Believe God Cares That Much.
2. It Is Difficult to Believe Life Goes on Beyond the Tomb.
3. We Have Trouble Processing the Implications of These Two Truths.

Peace, Fr. Jim

La Divina Misericordia (Segunda Parte)

4. La actitud del amor activo hacia el prójimo es otra condición para recibir gracias. "Si el alma no practica la misericordia de alguna manera no conseguirá mi misericordia en el día del juicio. Oh, si las almas supieran acumular los tesoros eternos, no serían juzgadas, porque la misericordia anticiparía mi juicio".

5. El Señor Jesús desea que sus devotos hagan por lo menos una obra de Misericordia al día. "Debes saber, hija mía que mi Corazón es la misericordia misma. De este mar de misericordia las gracias se derraman sobre todo el mundo. Deseo que tu corazón sea la sede de mi misericordia. Deseo que esta misericordia se derrame sobre todo el mundo a través de tu corazón. Cualquiera que se acerque a ti, no puede marcharse sin confiar en esta misericordia mía que tanto deseo para las almas".

La Santa Sede decreta día de la Divina Misericordia
Una propuesta de Santa Faustina Kowalska

La Congregación para el Culto Divino y la Disciplina de los Sacramentos publicó el 23 de mayo del 2000 un decreto en el que se establece, por indicación de Juan Pablo II, la fiesta de la Divina Misericordia, que tendrá lugar el segundo domingo de Pascua. La denominación oficial de este día litúrgico será «segundo domingo de Pascua o de la Divina Misericordia».

Ya el Papa lo había anunciado durante la canonización de Sor Faustina Kowalska, el 30 de abril: «En todo el mundo, el segundo domingo de Pascua recibirá el nombre de domingo de la Divina Misericordia. Una invitación perenne para el mundo cristiano a afrontar, con confianza en la benevolencia divina, las dificultades y las pruebas que esperan al genero humano en los años venideros».

Sin embargo, el Papa no había escrito estas palabras, de modo que no aparecieron en la transcripción oficial de sus discursos de esa canonización. Santa Faustina, que es conocida como la mensajera de la Divina Misericordia, recibió revelaciones místicas en las que Jesús le mostró su corazón, fuente de misericordia y le expresó su deseo de que se estableciera esta fiesta. El Papa le dedicó una de sus encíclicas a la Divina Misericordia («Dives in misericordia»)

Con gratitudo, Padre. Ubaldo
