Domingo de la Solemnidad de La Santísima Trinidad

I Looked Into His Face

One of the best photographs from the WWII era is a photo of King George the VI inspecting a bombed-out section of London. He stops to talk with a little boy, who is sloppily dressed and has his cap on crooked. The king is bending on one knee and looking directly into the face of the child, and even though it is a profile shot of the king, you can see that his is a look of compassion. Tell me that that child's life was not changed. Tell me that if he lived to be a hundred he forgot that day? I would suggest that once one truly looks into the eyes of Jesus, it is difficult to turn away.

If you don't believe that, then ask a long parade of witnesses. Ask Nicodemus. I met Jesus under the cover of darkness one night, and after the crucifixion, I was still with Him to bury his body. Ask Mary Magdalene. Yes, it is true. I looked into his face, and I became a pure woman. Ask Matthew. I too looked into his face, and I became an honest man. Ask Paul. When I met Jesus, I changed. My zeal for the law became a zeal for love. Ask Peter. Change, you ask? Oh yes, I changed. After I met, Jesus I had to wrestle with my prejudices against the gentiles.

We are all broken men and women and our need is to be healed, changed, repaired, forgiven. The true question for this morning is not "What was Nicodemus searching for?" but rather, "What are you searching for?"

Peace, Fr.

Jim

Oración del Papa Francisco

Oh Señor, Dios nuestro, llamaste a tu pueblo para ser tu Iglesia. Cuando se reúnan en Tu Nombre, que amen, honren y sigan a tu Hijo a la vida eterna en el Reino que prometió. Deje que su adoración sea siempre sincera, y ayúdelos a encontrar Su Amor salvador en la Iglesia y sus Sacramentos.

Llena con el Espíritu de Cristo a aquellos a quienes llamas a vivir en medio del mundo y su preocupación. Ayúdalos por su trabajo en la tierra para edificar tu Reino eterno. Que sean testigos efectivos de la Verdad del Evangelio y hagan que tu Iglesia sea una presencia viva en medio del mundo.

Aumenta los dones que le has dado a tu Iglesia para que tu pueblo fiel pueda continuar creciendo en santidad e imitación de tu Hijo amado.

Te lo pedimos por Cristo nuestro Señor. Amén

Con gratitud, Padre Ubaldo
