

Holocaust Memorial Day

To mark Holocaust Memorial Day and the 70th anniversary of the liberation of Auschwitz, we have assembled a poignant booklist that should hopefully help explain and inform younger readers about the events surrounding the Holocaust.

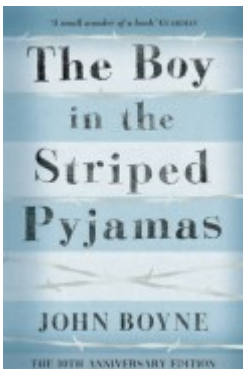

Books by Morris Gleitzman, John Boyne and Anne Booth make up some of the titles appropriate for readers aged 10-14-years-old.

Girl with a White Dog

by Anne Booth
Catnip Publishing

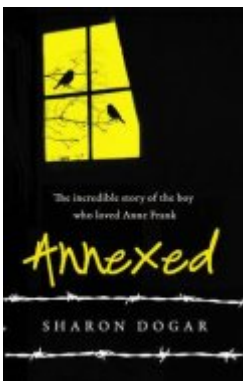

Jessie is delighted when she finds a beautiful white puppy at Gran's house. But then Gran starts becoming confused, and saying strange things about their new pet.

The Boy in the Striped Pyjamas

by John Boyne
Random House

Bruno is exploring his new home at 'Out-With' when he meets Shmuel, who lives on the other side of a fence which surrounds a large camp in the grounds.

Annexed

by Sharon Dogar
Andersen Press

This fictionalised account of Peter (a teenage Dutch Jew, hiding from the Nazis with his family and their friends, the Franks) is a meditation on the power of written testimony and the nature of evil.

Once

by Morris Gleitzman

Penguin

Morris Gleitzman brings heart and humour to the difficult subject of the Holocaust in this ground-breaking children's book.

Now

by Morris Gleitzman

Puffin

A beautifully written book, full of hope, love and sorrow; it provides an apt ending to the unforgettable trilogy that also includes Once and Then.

Then

by Morris Gleitzman

Puffin

Then opens with Felix and Zelda running for their lives from a train taking them to a concentration camp.

After

by Morris Gleitzman

Puffin Books

The fourth installment in Morris Gleitzman's unforgettable series beginning with Once, tells the story of what happened to Felix in the final, agonising stages of the Second World War.

Maus

by Art Spiegelman

Penguin

This is the complete story of Vladek Spiegelman and his wife, living and surviving in Hitler's Europe.
