

Treasury Board Appointments

Treasury Board Secretary

Natalie Hurst – Brings with her a plethora of experience in professional and campus roles. She has worked in the Office of Campus Activities, at a leading K Street consulting firm, and most recently – The UK House of Commons. She is very professional, organized, sociable, and knowledgeable. She is not only prepared for the role as Treasury Board Secretary, but is also more than qualified. She will be a great addition to the Treasury Board and I look forward to working with her.

Treasury Board Directors

Class of 2018

Cai Li Pleshe – Has a lot of experience through her past 2 years as a Director on the Treasury Board, as well as her time spent working in OCA. Her time on the board and in OCA has made her very knowledgeable and a real asset to the board. In addition to her understanding and years of experience, Cai Li also brings an enthusiastic and fun-loving attitude to the board. She is more than qualified to serve as a Director and will continue to be an asset on the board.

Thomas Andres – Although he has had rather little experience in SGA, Thomas brings with him strong skills in budgeting, leadership, and management. He has a strong interest in the role of the Treasury Board and is looking to use his strengths to positively impact the school. He is tactful, detailed, and eager to get involved. His dedication to the role as a Treasury Board Director is unquestionable and he has proven to be very qualified for the Director position

Cullen Murphy – With a year of experience as a Director on the board, he has proven himself to be a dedicated, knowledgeable, and engaging member of the Treasury Board. He is very sociable and understanding of the role, duties, and expectations of Treasury Board directors.

Class of 2020

Dante Gulla – Dante shows a lot of interest and dedication to the Treasury Board. As a student athlete, he offers an added perspective for the Treasury Board as well as a list of leadership experience. He is an active member of the CUA Debate Club and the Student Athlete Advisory Committee. In high school, he was the Head of Student Council and Student Consultant to the Everett Police Department. His positive demeanor and drive will be great additions to the Treasury Board.

Griffin Namin – Griffin is a member of WCUA Radio, Pre-Law Society, and just recently elected to the Executive Board of the College Republicans. He is an active member on campus and highly involved. In addition to his extracurricular activities, he has worked on campus and in the Office of U.S. Senator Roy Blunt. He seems dedicated and very interested in being a member of Treasury Board and being a supporter of student life on campus.

Krishia Examen – As a current Senator and member of Program Board, Krishia brings with her plenty of experience in working with Treasury Board and supporting student life. She is open minded and hopes to support organizations in making a positive impact on campus. She is detail oriented and highly motivated. She looks forward to having an opportunity to make a positive impact on campus and have a present role in working with student organizations.

Jean Higgins – Jean is a very active freshman on campus. She is a member of the CUA Investment Club, Business Women’s Council, The Dean’s Student Advisory Council, and a Cardinal Ambassador. As a Director on the Treasury Board, she hopes to bring more transparency and understanding of the allocation process. She brings a positive attitude and fresh perspective to the board. She is eager to begin her role as Director and I believe she is well qualified for the Director position.
