

Resolution 007
A Resolution Expanding Study Spaces on Campus
Sponsored by: Senator Harrington
Co-Sponsored by: Senator Schimp

Whereas,

John K. Mullen of Denver Library is the only 24 hour study space on campus

Whereas,

Students need additional study spaces, especially during the final examination periods at the end of each semester.

Whereas,

McGivney Hall is centrally located near Mullen Library, recently updated, contains computer labs, contains group study spaces, and contains classrooms.

Be it enacted that,

The Student Government Association Senate, acting in its official capacity as the representative of the undergraduate student body of The Catholic University of America, hereby requests that McGivney Hall be open 24 hours during the final examination period at the end of each semester
