Chaos Guitars proudly endorses Jeffrey Hinz

Jeff is affiliated with Sinaro, The Unbroken and Enstrife

Fogelsville, P.A.: Following the news of Chaos Guitar's new Artist Endorsement Program, they announced that Jeffrey Hinz will be the first Artist to sign on with Chaos Guitars. The multi-talented Hinz is known for his skills with such bands as Sinaro, The Unbroken (formerly known as The Broken Co.) and his own project Enstrife.

The founder and creator of Chaos Guitars noted "We couldn't be more proud to have Jeff on board with us, I have watched his career for awhile now and he just blows me away." When asked why Hinz was to be the first Dave Kite/Chaos Guitars founder answered "It just seemed natural, I built him a bass guitar a while back and he was so gracious and thankful, he stood by and promoted Chaos Guitars for nothing in return just because he was truly proud of his guitar and that is the kind of person I want to work with and have along for the ride as Chaos Guitars prospers"

Not only does Jeffrey Hinz get the title of "first" to be endorsed by Chaos Guitars but he is also a multi-endorsement because of his talent behind the bass guitar and also his talent as a lead/rhythm guitar player.
