AVIATION DAY 2019
presented by Spartan College and United Airlines

Friday, September 6, 2019
10am-2pm

United Airlines Tech Ops Facility
27300 E 98th Ave., Denver, CO 80249

The outlook for careers in aviation is strong. Boeing forecasts a demand for more than 206,000 new pilots and 189,000 new maintenance technicians by 2037*.

Learn about various STEM related career opportunities in aviation such as:

• Mechanics
• Engineers
• Pilots
• Electronics
• Flight Crew
• UAVs
• Operations
• Air Traffic Control

Current confirmed participation from:

• Ball Aerospace
• CDOT
• Delta Airlines
• Endeavor Air
• Federal Aviation Administration (FAA)
• Frontier Airlines
• Lockheed Martin
• AIMS Community College
• Metropolitan State University
• Sierra Nevada Corporation
• Skywest Airlines
• Southwest Airlines
• United Airlines
• US Air Force Academy
• US Army/Air National Guard
• Air Traffic Control

You can interact with government representatives, view various aircraft, speak with schools and companies, plus so much more! Refreshments will be provided.

For more information contact Nick Brown at 303-410-2407 or nicholas.brown@spartan.edu. Open to all interested parties.