The charm of the Andamans

Glorious landscapes, picturesque islands and historic edifices, the Andamans appeal in a great variety of ways. You could rent a holiday cottage in a luxury resort or perhaps opt a budget eco-friendly resort tucked away in a corner of the city of

Elephant ride on Havelock Island

Port Blair, which makes for a refreshing change from restricted hotel rooms in the heart of the city. There will be plenty of space for you and your family to feel at ease. Bring along your hiking and fishing equipment or come prepared for scuba diving and snorkeling. You can laze as long as you wish on the beaches: sometimes you might be the only one on a beach! You can sit watching an awesome sunset and then have dinner by candlelight on the beach as well. Wake up early to watch a breath-taking sunrise over the sea. Go hiking in the dense rain forests or rent a bike and go for long rides over the exotic jungle trails and seaside roads of Port Blair, Havelock and Neil islands, which couples find very romantic.
