

HLAA DC Blog
Can You Hear Me Now: Sharing Our Hearing Loss Stories
Submission Guidelines

This is your hearing loss journey and your story. So your submission will be posted with minimal editing, if any. Please specify if you choose to use your name or submit anonymously.

Below are some guidelines identified as especially useful to help you craft your story and to help others benefit from your experience.

- Timeline regarding your hearing loss: How and when it began, and when you took action(s)
- How you identified provider(s)
- Device(s), hearing assistive technologies, and communication strategies you have used
- Impact on your relationships: family, community, workplace, volunteering
- Situations that you continue to find challenging
- Role of support organizations (e.g. HLAA)
- Lessons learned and suggestions for other members on their journey

Please contact us at hladcchapter@gmail.com with any comments or questions. Please include your email address should there be any issues to clarify. Thank you on behalf of the HLAA -- DC Chapter members.