

PIONEER RESIDENT DIES AT HIS HOME IN SANTA MONICA

SANTA MONICA, March 9.—Francisco Boutillier, one of the oldest residents of this city and a member of an old and wealthy California family, died at his home at the corner of Fifteenth and Marine streets last night.

Deceased was 89 years old and had resided in the house where he died for the last twenty-three years. He is survived by a son, A. G. Boutillier, living in San Bernardino, and three daughters—Mrs. Inez B. de Boutillier, Mrs. Juanita B. de Ortega of Los Angeles and Mrs. Esperanza B. de Afilla, who resided with her father. A number of nieces and nephews, among whom are Dionosio Boutillier and Felipe Boutillier of Los Angeles, also survive the old pioneer.

Funeral services will be held at the Santa Monica Catholic church at 9:30 o'clock Wednesday morning. Burial will be made at Woodlawn.
