

Bicycle Riders of Nineties to Celebrate

Not a bicycle built for two, but Sheriff Biscailuz was "oiling 'er up" in front of the Los Angeles Athletic Club yesterday when the Wheelmen of the Past Century met to plan their annual old-fashioned cycling celebration. They are, left to right, J. E. Sullivan, Carl E. McStay, Jim Lancaster, Frank Barnes, secretary; J. Phil Percival, Sheriff Biscailuz, chairman; Hans Ohrt, Will Jenkins, John T. Bailey, W. W. Weir, Tracy Hall and P. M. Doyle, vice-chairman.

WHEELMEN PLAN MEETING

Scores of Prominent Citizens Expected to Attend Tenth Annual Reunion November 17.

Daisy, Daisy, give me your answer, do.

We'll be happy, on a bicycle built for two.

This, and many another old refrain sung in the days when foot-powered vehicles were the accepted transportation mode, will be chorused again when members of the Wheelmen of the Past Century hold their tenth annual meeting November 17 at the Los Angeles Athletic Club.

Scores of the city's prominent residents of today are members of the association and are expected to attend the reunion. Sheriff Biscailuz will be program chairman, and Carl E. McStay, master of ceremonies.

Membership in the group is limited to those who rode bicycles previous to the year 1900, according to Frank A. Barnes, secretary.
