

Snodgrass in New Position

Harvey Snodgrass, ace tennis professional, takes over new duties as instructor at the new Bath and Tennis Club, fashioned after the Long Island Club of the same name in the East. Nick Stuart, film actor, is president of the local club.

Before turning professional in 1925, Snodgrass was national doubles clay court champion, Western States singles champion and sixth ranking player of the United States. His addition to the Bath and Tennis Club will no doubt increase the prestige of that organization.

The Bath and Tennis Club is located in Cheviot Hills. It features eight tennis courts, badminton and squash courts, a ninety by thirty-foot swimming pool, indoor sports, electric cabinet baths, health ray treatments and all the latest scientific conveniences.

Entries Come in for Hill Climb

J. J. O'Connor, representative of the California Municipal and County Motorcycle Officers' Association, announced last night that entries for the hill climb to be staged at the Winemann ranch, at Calabasas, on Sunday, June 17, are coming in by wire, air mail and long-distance telephone. According to O'Connor, entries being filed at such an early date would presage the largest and most formidable field of contestants ever to engage in an A.M.A. motorcycle contest.

"Windy" Lindstrom, noted rider, who won the hill climb at Tejon recently, in such sensational manner, was first to file his entry. Byrd McKinney, all-round championship rider and the entrant who gave Lindstrom a hard chase at Tejon and was forced to retire with victory in his grasp, due to a broken chain. McKinney will have a new motorbike for the event.

Rosenbloom to Mix With Fiermonte

Maxie Rosenbloom's next professional escapade will be an attempt to crash society to the canvas. The playboy light-heavyweight champion made this known yesterday through his manager, Frank Bachman, with the announcement that Rosenbloom is signed to fight Enzo Fiermonte, husband of the former Mrs. William Astor Dick. The fight will be an outdoor charity affair next September in New York.

Fiermonte, who gave up a promising ring career to marry the wealthy widow last year, witnessed the Rosenbloom-Joe Knight bout in Florida and publicly declared the champion would be a cinch to whip. He finally induced his wife to allow him to return to the ring for this one last fling.
