

BUDGE, MAKO ELIMINATE ALLISON AND VAN RYN

PHILADELPHIA, May 16. (Exclusive)—Don Budge and Gene Mako assured themselves of playing the doubles for America in the Davis Cup match against Australia May 30, 31 and June 1 at the Germantown Cricket Club, by beating Wilmer Allison and John Van Ryn, 6-1, 6-4, 7-5, today at the Merion Cricket Club.

The young Californians repulsed the veterans in one hour and ten minutes. The match was a test in the respect that an umpire, Frank Zook, was in the chair and linesmen were about the court. In the background observing the engagement were Holcombe Ward, chairman of the American Davis Cup selection committee; Walter L. Pate, captain, and Joseph W. Wear, reportedly the overseas captain if the United States eliminates Australia.

RAIN HALTS TENNIS

ZAGREB (Czechoslovakia) May 16. (AP)—Rain today forced the postponement of the doubles match in the second round Davis Cup match between Czechoslovakia and Yugoslavia today. The match remained deadlocked as each scored one victory in the opening singles matches yesterday.

CLUB HOLDS TANK MEET

Olympic Candidates Appear at West Side Pool in Program Today

West Side Tennis Club will initiate the outdoor swimming season with a pre-Olympic review of local champions at the opening of its pool in Cheviot Hills this afternoon at 2 o'clock. This is the first of sixteen outdoor meets already sanctioned by the Southern Pacific Association A.A.U., according to C. P. L. Nichols, chairman of the swimming committee.

For this afternoon's program Fred Cady, Olympic diving coach for the Berlin Games, has a choice selection of Olympic prospects, headed by 13-year-old Marjorie Gestring who stunned gray heads of the swimming world by her recent barnstorming debut at the Chicago indoor nationals championships last month.
