

GOLFS TODAY — Comedian Bob Hope will be among stars competing in today's Motion Picture golf tourney.

Movie Stars Play Today in Borzage Golf Event

Movieland's annual golf outing, the Frank Borzage motion picture tournament, takes place today at California Country Club with some of the greatest names of filmdom scheduled to swing their golf sticks for sweet charity.

The Cancer Fund is the recipient of proceeds from today's show, with gallery fees set at $2, including tax, and each contestant tossing in a $10 entry fee.

California Country Club may be reached from Los Angeles by driving west on Pico to Motor Bldv. (at the 20th Century-Fox studios) thence left on Motor to Club Drive.

Forrest Tucker, the giant Warner Bros. actor who won last year, will rate as favorite to retain his title. The blond Lakesider has finished close up in several amateur tournaments during the past year.

Top-ranked stars who will compete include Bob Hope, Randolph Scott, Bruce Cabot, Tony Martin, Jack Carson, Wayne Morris, Barry Fitzgerald, Johnny Weissmuller and Jack Carroll.
