

GOLF HEADS TO GATHER

Meeting Listed Next Week

Joe Rhodes Scheduled to Get Presidency of Association

The call was sounded yesterday for the annual meeting of the Southern California Golf Association at the Jonathan Club on November 2. President Ray Thomas announced that new officers will be elected at that time.

Joe Rhodes of Midwick is scheduled to be elected president with four new directors taking the places of old members of the board.

Joe Vickers of California Country Club is slated to go in for Ed Hurst, A. K. Burnap of Bel-Air for Ray Thomas, Ralph Waycott of Annandale for C. M. Kellogg and Warner Edmonds of Santa Barbara for C. W. Haugue on the new board.

TIES ABOUND IN "TERRIBLE" TOURNEY

The regular monthly tourney of the "Terrible Twenty" at Bel Air this week resulted in a series of tie scores for first and second place. Bill Laubender, Art Trout and Ed Westberg each had a 76 for low net, while DeWitt Clark and George Snyder followed closely with 78 nets. In the third round of match play Pat Patridge defeated Ned Dawson 1 up. All matches in the fourth round were postponed until the November tournament.

MAC SMITH ENTERS WESTWOOD HILLS PLAY

Macdonald Smith, the old Carnoustie Scot, started practice at the Los Angeles Country Club this week for the impending California open season. He has assured the committee in charge that his first tournament fling will be in the Westwood Hills $1000 open November 13-16 inclusive. Mac Smith, 41 years of age, has won the Los Angeles open four times.

MRS. RYAN WINS TIN-WHISTLE TEST

The tin-whistle event for women at Oakmont this week brought victory to Mrs. J. H. Ryan in Class A with a total of 55 points, three more than Mrs. W. F. Lewis. Mrs. L. R. Van Burgh and Mrs. George Herald tied for first in Class B with 72 points apiece. Both ladies scored a double eagle on the sixteenth hole. Mrs. Fred Foelsch won first in Class C with 54 points.

AL JOLSON AND RUBY TO ENTERTAIN

All contestants in the women's western championship are to see Hollywood today as the guests of Al Jolson and Ruby Keeler. The ladies have been invited to lunch at 1:30 and will tour Warner Bros. studio in the afternoon.

CALIFORNIA BARS GO UP

Following in the footsteps of Oakmont, which recently announced an initiation fee for membership, California C. C. will require an initiation fee on and after December 1, it was announced yesterday by Fred Ussher, president of the club.

OLD DRIVING RANGE REOPENS

The driving range of the late Chick Fraser, atop the Pico Hills, will reopen today as Los Angeles Golf Fairways No. 2. "Curly" Vesey, formerly an assistant at Hollywood, has been appointed pro.

FREEMAN SCORES ANNANDALE ACE

An ace came to life in the Annandale course hills the other day. Robert Freeman of Pasadena scored it at the difficult 230-yard seventeenth hole. He was playing with J. H. Shearer of Pasadena.

OAKMONT HOLDS COSTUME PARTY

Oakmont is going in for something a little different in the way of mixed foursomes on Sunday. It will be a costume event with prizes at stake for this as well as for the two-ball medal play that follows.

MRS. HUNTER NABS HOLLYWOOD EVENT

First honors in the women's tourney at Hollywood this week were won by Mrs. T. V. Hunter in Class A, with 52 points. Second place was captured by Mrs. Dave Marcus, 42 points. Class B winners were Mrs. Vance Breese and Mrs. Johnny Jones, with 48 and 45 points, respectively.

