There's some doubt within me
And my heart gets weary
Holding on for so long
Father, can I carry on?
Do you hear my plea?

Lord, day after day
There's a war for my faith
When You speak Your Word
I hold what I have heard
Lord, how long must I wait

You say to believe
In what I can't see
No mind has perceived
What You have for me
Just make room to receive

And though the road may seem hard
And the journey seem so dark
Don't throw in the towel
You'll come through somehow
And You'll have my reward

You say to believe
Despite what I see
Eyes haven't seen
What's in store for me
Just have room to receive

It doesn't matter how it looks
It's a plan in Your book
Don't give up. Don't give in
Just stay faithful to the end
And You'll show that You're God.
