

It's Already Done

Lyrics by Nicole A. Jones

Performed by JAI

Music by: JAI

Don't quit.
Don't you give up the fight.
Don't slip.
Don't lose sight of the prize.

You'll win.
Though it seems impossible,
Your victory
Is nearer than what you may know.

You see it's already done.
Can't you see the light?
Here comes the sun;
Breaking forth through the clouds.
God will drive away the storm
But because you've endured the rain
And because you've withstood the pain
God is on His way and what He has promised is coming.
