Episode 1: John and Agile Change

5 Questions for Consideration

1. John shares his experience working with teams that were new to the agile process but who took to the new process well. Why do you think this was successful for them?
2. How important do you think the hands on training they provide is to the success of the project?
3. How important do you think commitment, looking after each other and team work are to the process of agile development?
4. John and Alessandria discussed using the agile process in other contexts. Are there ideas you have for applying this approach in your own work?
5. John shared his experience working for Habitat for Humanity and a story about the houses built by their organization surviving hurricanes. Why do you think that is?
