Episode 4: The Reluctant Factory

5 Questions for Consideration

1. Tim shared a story in which the organization wasn't able to take advantage of the "human power" of their workforce. Why do you think they made this decision?
2. As Tim shared, the factory ended up shutting down. Where do you think things went wrong?
3. Why do you think managers were resistant to the change?
4. Tim shared one insight about pacing change with the organization. Do you have examples of when you were ready for a change but others were not?
5. Alessandria shared the quote of "Time makes more converts than reason." What does this quote mean to you?
