Leadership is not only a vertical function, but requires us to lead laterally as well.

This presentation will provide a glimpse into:

- Operational (people) and strategic (organization) leadership practices
- How they can be used to create an environment that is most capable of positive results

Great for agency Executive Directors, Program Coordinators and Board Members

Class will be led by Scott Lewis, Lead Faculty for the Strategic Leadership program on Northern Arizona University's community campuses
