Calling All Volunteers... People Who Care Needs YOU!

It's not easy to reach out and ask for help when family and friends are not able or available. But sometimes it's necessary.

People Who Care is a non-profit, tax-deductible organization that assists adults who are unable to drive because of physical limitations. Enrolled clients, or "Neighbors," receive caring, non-medical assistance from volunteers who help residents in the community where they live – in Chino Valley, Prescott, and Prescott Valley and Dewey communities.

More than 450 individual Neighbors are able to stay in their homes and continue living in their communities because of People Who Care volunteers. It may be a visit to the grocery store a few times a month, a ride to the doctor's office or the bank, help with paperwork, or maybe just a friendly visit from a volunteer, or phone calls during the week.

Ways you can help:

- Help a Neighbor on an ongoing basis, i.e., once a week, twice a month or even once a month
- Substituting for a volunteer who has an ongoing appointment.
- Working in the office helping schedule appointments.
- Work on a committee helping with Public Relations, or Special Events.
- Visit with a Neighbor in his or her home or make a reassuring phone call during the week, helping to alleviate feelings of loneliness and isolation.
- You may prefer to give them the days that you might be available and have them call you with different opportunities to help, usually with rides to healthcare appointments or to the grocery store.

If you are interested in learning more about volunteering, please call the Prescott Main Office at 928-445-2480 and speak to Peggy Ricker, volunteer coordinator. Because of your generous gifts, United Way of Yavapai County has been a People Who Care supporting partner since 2003. Together we are changing lives, we are Living United!

Local Walmart Employees Give Above & Beyond to help those in need...

Central to their commitment to operating globally and giving back locally are the grants Walmart awards to organizations of all sizes in communities around the globe. Whether it's a small grant to a local school or a large grant to a hunger relief organization working across several states, they engage in opportunities that align with the Walmart Foundation's key areas of focus: Opportunity, Sustainability and Community. Globally, Walmart and the Walmart Foundation gave $1.4 billion in cash and in-kind contributions during fiscal year ending Jan. 31, 2017. And, they did it one grant and one community at a time.

In addition to direct corporate giving, Many Walmart stores in Yavapai County encourage employees to participate in the United Way Giving Campaign. Local employees give a financial gift that is deducted directly from their paychecks. Those dollars come to United Way of Yavapai County and are dispersed to meet the needs of our neighbors right here in our communities.

A heartfelt thanks to the Yavapai County area Walmart family of employees for improving lives right here our community. Now that's Living United!
