Our speaker this month is Greg Manning, 1st Lt. Commander of the Texas Division. Commander Manning will present “Was it Secession or was it Rebellion?” This is a very important topic, and one that is not well understood in today’s world. Please plan on attending!

Last week, Jan 19th, was the 200th birthday of Gen. Robert E. Lee, one of America’s great military leaders and citizens. While “The Late Unpleasantness” is still the third rail among “journalists”, there has been noted a remarkable upswing in the number of newspapers and other media outlets giving coverage to this event. As of this writing, the number of articles, blurbs, interviews, editorials, and letters-to-the-editor (LTE) (being tracked at HQ) is in the low thousands nationwide. Despite our usual, and well-deserved, criticism of media bias, we should be grateful that Gen. Lee seems to be able to rise above the fray, and command respect from both sides of the aisle.

Our next project should be to get even a fraction of such respect for men like Stuart, Cleburne, and Forrest.

Come at 6:30, eat barbeque, fellowship, learn your history!
