

THE CORWIN AMENDMENT

An overwhelming 66% vote by the Northern controlled U. S. Congress proved that the North openly supported the Corwin Amendment and exposed their pretense of being opposed to slavery as a farce. The Southern states were offered the Corwin Amendment to the U.S. Constitution on March 2, 1861. If you do not know about this amendment this post is a must read.

THE CORWIN AMENDMENT: AND YET THEY INSIST THE WAR WAS ABOUT SLAVERY!

The Corwin Amendment would have made slavery permanently legal in America, if the South would not leave the Union. The following is the text of that amendment: "No amendment shall be made to the Constitution which will authorize or give to Congress the power to abolish or interfere, within any State, with the domestic institutions thereof, including that of persons held to labor or service by the laws of said State."

In his inaugural address, Lincoln stated: "I understand a proposed amendment to the Constitution has passed Congress, to the effect that the Federal Government shall never interfere with the domestic institutions of the States, including that of persons held to service. Holding such a provision to now be implied constitutional law, I have no objection to its being made express and irrevocable."

However, the Southern States declined to be "Tax Slaves" and treated as an Agricultural Colony of the Industrial North. The South was paying 75-85% of the cost of operating the Federal government via the tariff. Eighty to ninety percent of this tax money was being kept and spent in the North. Lincoln had promised the New England Industrialists that he would raise the tariff higher if elected and he did.

Travis [><]

Source: confederatewave.org

Photo: Cover letter to the Corwin Amendment signed by Abraham Lincoln.