Happy New Year!

Dear Family and Friends of Cedar Falls UCC,

January 1, 2017 and every new year provides a cultural reminder that new beginnings are actually possible and will be happening whether we are prepared or not. I used to do 2 things every January first: I updated my will and I made at least 2 resolutions of what I wanted to do in that year and at least 2 resolutions of what I didn't want to do. It has been a few years since I stopped this tradition. I still haven't unpacked my journal with these things recorded in it. This year we had worship on January 1st. Celebrating God in our midst together is a great way to bring in the new year.

At the end of our worship service I announced that I would like to have "good news" be announced before closing our time together for that week. Let's make 2017 the year of good news. Our culture seems to focus on that which is wrong with the world, division, and so much negativity. We as a church will say "no" to participating in that focus. We will invite every week someone to share a "good news" story they have read, experienced, or heard about.

There are many worthwhile resolutions we could make in 2017. Here are some possibilities: *to say yes more often to God; *to stop worrying about what hasn't happened; *to laugh at least twice a day; *to do more of the things I like to do; *to do less of the things I don't like; *to ask forgiveness for my sins, but never for my being;

*to stop fantasizing about what I'd do if I won the lottery; *to listen to my soul. Well if you choose to make some from this list or have some of your own, blessings on living your resolutions.

Thank you for the delightful Christmas package. Janice and I enjoyed the delightful assortment of goodies. The books are great and the goodies almost gone. Thank you.

Our Cedar Falls UCC Clothes Closet (Kaden's Kloset) is going well. We are going to have an open house so the families can shop and share and we can demonstrate our hospitality. There is great potential for a vibrant ministry with this closet. We have sign up sheets to bring goodies and to help host that day. We will be open from 9 a.m. – 3 p.m.

Morning Circle did an outstanding job of putting together Christmas care packages. I was privileged to help deliver them. Barb Kuhlman organized and drove to most of our drop offs. It really is a gift to be with our folk giving cheer!

Thank you so much for my Christmas gift. A box full of goodies including: An Idiot's Guide for German Shepherds, a Prayer Journal, and many goodies, thank you so much. Very thoughtful of our giving people, thank you.

My dog's name is Dobby. I have been enjoying having a dog again. He is a black German Shepherd. We begin our puppy classes this week. He is doing well, but is very high-spirited.

We are making a difference where we can and how we can. You can make the church stronger. Invite and bring friends to worship. Let us know how we can reach into the community. God bless you! God is awesome! God loves you!

In Christ we serve,
Pastor Sue

Thank You notes

Dear Pastor Sue and UCC Congregation, My family is most grateful for your correspondence with Mom and Dad and willingness to keep them up-to-date with the church newsletter. ... thank you again for allowing us to use the fellowship hall in June of 2015 to celebrate their 90th Birthdays. Blessings to all, Melinda (McAninch) Grimm and Jay, David, and Kurt McAninch

Many thanks to the “UCC Family” for a package of special items that included candy, sweets, assorted fruits, a Christmas decoration of measuring spoons with painted snowman faces, and some “Fully Rely on God” soap. All this was packed in a delightfully decorated box (which may have held shoes in another life) delivered to my apartment (#1) at Windridge by two attractive ladies (Barb and Pastor Sue). The gift was much appreciated and enjoyed on arrival December 15.

Merry Christmas!!!
Dick (Douglas)
