Jazz Brunch April 30th and Peace Camp May 6th

Dear Family and Friends of Cedar Falls UCC,

Spring is all around us. New life blossoming and giving us hope of better days, at least that is the affect on me. There is something renewing about sunlight and new growth all around me. What renews your spirit?

Scott Peck opens his book, The Road Less Traveled, with these words: “Life is difficult.” This is so true. I appreciate what I understand to be essential to Buddhists. They are challenged to wake up to the pains of life and become enlightened in how to deal with it, a worthy mission for any person. Suffering is something we all have in common. How we deal with it is influenced by our faith.

I want to examine 4 truths of Buddhism that tend to be universal truths. First, pain is inevitable. Life is full of heartache at every age. Second, suffering is a result of clinging. While pain is inevitable, suffering is optional. We suffer because we cling to things, to people, and to life. Suffering is what happens when we struggle with our experiences because of our inability to accept them. (C.S. Lewis once said that, if you never want to be hurt, never love anyone or anything, not even your dog. To love is to subject ourselves to pain. The more we love, the more we hurt.) Buddhism says, “If I didn’t cling, nothing would frighten me, because there would be nothing I would be afraid to lose, and nothing I would need to be happy.” Third, liberation is possible. In Buddhism, the road to liberation is detachment. Selfishness can be overcome. Freedom comes when we stop complaining about the hand life deals you. You decide how to live and unhappiness is a choice. The fourth truth is that enlightenment comes from following the eight-fold path: 1. Right understanding 2. Right aspiration 3. Right action 4. Right speech 5. Right livelihood 6. Right effort 7. Right concentration 8. Right mindfulness. (Paul says in Philippians 4:8, “Whatever is true, noble, right, pure, lovely, admirable – if anything is excellent or praiseworthy – think on these things.”

Henri Nouwen once said, “Many people do not think they are loved or feel safe and so when suffering comes, they see it as an affirmation of their worthlessness. The great challenge of the spiritual life is to learn to live our brokenness under the blessing and not the curse.”

Whatever challenge you are facing, you are not alone. You are part of a community of faith that cares about you and will hold you in prayer. Let us know how to best encourage and support you.

May God's love bring us together and may God's grace hold us together. Have a blessed Holy week.

On April 30th we will have a JAZZ Brunch! We are thankful for Chris Mertz and "The Hands of Time". We have a sign up list for food. Our theme is "A Love Supreme".

On May 6th we have a Peace Camp on Cooperation. If you can help, let me know.

We are making a difference where we can and how we can. You can make the church stronger. Invite and bring friends to worship. God bless you! God is awesome! God loves you!

In Christ we serve,
Pastor Sue

FULLY RELY ON GOD!

Thank You Notes

To fellow UCC folks at CF: Wow!! What an especially great birthday celebration it was that I received on March 26. Lots of good wishes and a card filled with more. Then there came the treats – and we all know how folks here really appreciate "treats". Food included a pound cake (courtesy of Celeste's friend) plus brownies, strawberries, and cream (YUM!). My thanks to all of you for your thoughtfulness as I seek to get ready for the next 90 years or so. I am blessed for all of you!!! Dick

We extend a special thanks to Chris Merz and the Hands of Time for sharing their musical gifts at the Jazz Brunch. Thank you!

UCC Church Family,
Thanks for the sympathy card with your thoughts and prayers regarding my Dad's passing. He enjoyed being a part of the UCC family and doing things for the church as he was able. Especially want to thank Pastor Sue for being so helpful to our family as we remember and plan Dad's memorial service. Thanks again for your thoughts and prayers. –Dave McAninch for the family of J. B. McAninch –

Poems by Chris Vallecillo read in church on April 23rd. Easter Morn and He is Alive! Thanks Chris for sharing them.

Easter Morn

Today we celebrate that first Easter morn,
When the stone rolled away and the veil was torn!

This was the day God set us free.
The day HE raised Christ out of hell and misery!

Christ bore our sins,
He bore our pain.

Because of His great sacrifice
We are forever changed!

Thank you Lord God above;
For this most gracious gift of love!
So let Jesus' life be the example to us;
That in God alone we must put our trust!

He is Alive!

He is alive!
He has risen!
My heart leaps with joy;
For I am forgiven!

The greatest sacrifice ever made.
Through HIM all debts have been paid!
Let us rejoice and be glad that Christ has overcome the grave.
Announce the Good News – whoever follows HIM
shall be saved!

So Celebrate this most Holy Day;
Giving God the Glory,
Thanks and Praise!
