A DAY AT THE AIRPORT

 Orpheus

Introduction

THIS IS THE STORY of a day in the life of an airport. All the illustrations in this book have exactly the same view. But each one shows a different time of day, from early morning to late at night. Lots of things happen during this single day. Some of them are quite unexpected.

You can follow all the various comings and goings in the airport during the course of the day. The clock at the top left-hand corner of each double page is there to tell you what time of day you've reached.

There are some people and things that appear on every page. Look out especially for the shop assistant, the barman, the sleeping man and the check-in attendants. Don't miss the stray dog and the dog handlers who are trying to catch it!

Along the bottom of every scene you will see some little pictures, each with a label to tell you what they are. They can all be found somewhere in the busy scene. But where? That's your job to find them! How many can you spot?

EARLY MORNING
CHECKS

Work starts very early at the airport. It is still dark, but the cleaners are already busy. Some sleepy passengers have been waiting for their flights all night.

Outside, an engineer checks the plane's engine to make sure it is ready for take-off. The security guards patrol the area and discover a stowaway hiding behind the aircraft. The rest of his friends have a lucky escape!

It is not long before the first passengers of the day board their flight. One of them takes a wrong turn and gets lost in the morning mist! Their bags and suitcases are carefully loaded on to the plane. A stray dog has wandered into the airport and a pair of dog handlers desperately try to catch it. Inside the terminal building, a team of basketball players arrive to check in for their flight.

Let's find

It is mid-morning and there is mayhem at the airport!
A famous popstar is about to leave in her private jet.
Photographers fall over each other trying to take pictures of her.
Some young fans rush to ask for an autograph. Her bodyguards make sure that no one gets too close. In the departures lounge, a troupe of acrobats keep the other passengers entertained as they wait for their flight.

It is lunchtime, but these unlucky holidaymakers are not going anywhere. There is a fault with their plane's engine and they must wait for the engineers to repair it. Two men lose their tempers and start to fight. A fuel tanker arrives to refill the plane. A fire engine waits nearby in case there are any problems. In the control tower, the air traffic controllers work hard to make sure that all the planes can land and take off on time.

Let's find

Later, there is a huge thunderstorm. No planes can take off in such bad weather. A few passengers decide to buy a drink in the café while they wait. Unfortunately, there is a leak in the ceiling of the terminal building. It is not long before water starts pouring inside. Outside, the airport staff quickly cover up the luggage so that it does not get wet. A couple of people seem not to mind the rain so much. They stay outside and play in the puddles!

The rain has stopped. It is finally time for take-off! The air hostess checks the passengers' tickets and passports before they board the plane. They hurry along the gangway and take their seats. A luggage van brings their bags and suitcases to the plane. A sniffer dog finds a stowaway hiding amongst the baggage. Inside the terminal building, a thief suddenly snatches someone's bag in the shop. It is not long before he is caught!

A PRESIDENT
ARRIVES

A visiting president has just arrived with his wife. His team of security guards keep a careful watch as they leave the plane. A limousine with dark windows is waiting to take them to their hotel. A group of photographers try their best to take pictures of him. A news team broadcast his arrival on live television. Inside the terminal, people try to catch a glimpse of the president. A group of nuns are waiting to check in. They sing to pass the time!

NIGHT WORKERS
START WORK

It is late. The last planes of the day have taken off. The barman and the shop assistant have finally finished work. However, the security guards are still busy. They patrol the area outside with sniffer dogs and torches. The cleaners make sure that it is spotless inside the aircraft. Some passengers are already waiting for an early flight. They fall asleep on their luggage trolleys. There is one man who has been fast asleep all day. He is only just waking up!
