

THE CONSTITUTION OF THE COLLEGE DEMOCRATS OF NORTH CAROLINA

PREAMBLE

In order to promote a better America, with equality, opportunity, and freedom within a just and strong society, we dedicate ourselves to organizing the participation of Democratic college students in North Carolina. In this mission, we call for full participation of all North Carolina students, regardless of gender, age, race, ethnicity, national origin, religion, disability, socioeconomic status, sexual orientation, or gender identity.

Understanding the importance of participation in the Democratic Party to the preservation of our values and principles, we, Democratic college students, do hereby associate ourselves and adopt this Constitution as the College Democrats of North Carolina.

ARTICLE I

Name, Purpose, Associations, and Definitions

Section 1: Name. The name of this organization shall be the College Democrats of North Carolina, hereafter referred to as “The CDNC.”

Section 2: Purpose. The CDNC pledges itself to support the philosophy and candidates of the Democratic Party. Furthermore, The CDNC declares its intention to support all efforts to increase the participation of college students in Democratic affairs. To these ends, The CDNC shall educate and train its members so that they may be better able to:

- (a) Educate students about the philosophy of the Democratic Party.
- (b) Assist in the election of local, state, and national Democratic candidates.
- (c) Affect political change on the local, state, and national level.

Section 3: Associations. The CDNC will be considered the official college outreach arm of the North Carolina Democratic Party. In addition, the CDNC will be an official member organization of the College Democrats of America and, therein, the Democratic National Committee. The message and mission of the CDNC must not contradict the platforms of the North Carolina Democratic Party and the Democratic National Committee.

Section 4: Definitions. The following definitions shall apply to this Constitution:

- (a) A “majority” shall be defined as fifty percent (rounded up) plus one of the number of voting members of a body.

(b) A “tied vote” is a vote in which the number of votes in favor of the question are equal to the number of votes against the action.

ARTICLE II

Membership

Section 1: Eligibility. Membership in The CDNC shall be open to any student currently enrolled in a North Carolina college or university that has a chartered chapter of The CDNC who wishes to be known as a College Democrat and who has the best interests of The CDNC and the Democratic Party at heart.

(a) In the specific case of Historically Black Colleges and Universities (HBCUs) that have administrative barriers to form and be recognized as an official club on their respective campus, The CDNC retains the right to acknowledge the students as a coalition of College Democrats with the same rights and privileges as a chartered chapter.

(b) In the specific case where one finds difficulty in garnering enough support and members to charter a College Democrats chapter, that person shall be granted at-large membership which allows them all the rights and privileges of membership with the exception of voting at the state convention.

Section 2: Non-Discrimination Policy. Membership in The CDNC shall not be contingent on or in any way amended due to gender, age, race, ethnicity, national origin, religion, disability, socioeconomic status, sexual orientation, or gender identity.

ARTICLE III

Executive Board

Section 1: Composition. The Executive Board of The CDNC shall be composed of eleven permanent members:

- (1) The event of a tied vote as defined by this Constitution.
- (2) A Vote of No Confidence of the President of The CDNC.

Section 5: The Vice President of The CDNC.

(a) The Vice President of The CDNC shall assist the President in the performance of his or her duties.

(b) The Vice President of The CDNC shall act as President when the President is unable to perform his or her duties.

(c) The Vice President of The CDNC shall assume the office of the President upon the President's death, removal, or resignation.

Section 6: The State Council Chair of The CDNC.

- (a) The State Council Chair of The CDNC shall be responsible for working in conjunction with the Director of Membership for outreach to individual campus chapters.
- (b) The State Council Chair of The CDNC shall be responsible for the development of chartering new individual campus chapters.
- (c) The State Council Chair of The CDNC shall recommend members to serve as Regional Directors and oversee their operations.

Section 7: The State Council Vice Chair of The CDNC.

- (a) The State Council Vice Chair of The CDNC shall assist the State Council Chair of The CDNC in the performance of his or her duties.
- (b) The State Council Vice Chair of The CDNC shall act as State Council Chair when the State Council Chair of The CDNC is unable to perform his or her duties.
- (c) The State Council Vice Chair of The CDNC shall assume the office of the State Council Chair of The CDNC upon the President's death, removal, or resignation.

Section 8: The State Council Secretary of The CDNC.

- (a) The State Council Secretary of The CDNC shall be responsible for the recording of minutes for all official meetings and conference calls of The CDNC.
- (b) The State Council Secretary of The CDNC shall be responsible for following up with board members on their assigned or special tasks.

Section 9: The Director of Political Affairs of The CDNC.

- (a) The Director of Political Affairs shall be responsible for providing statewide and local political initiatives.
- (b) The Director of Political Affairs shall be responsible for updating the executive board on all major legislative movements in the NC General Assembly and Congress, and organizing all campaign plans for The CDNC.
- (c) The Director of Political Affairs of The CDNC shall recommend members to serve as Caucus Chairs and Vice Chairs and oversee their operations.

Section 10: The Director of Communications of The CDNC.

- (a) The Director of Communications of The CDNC shall be responsible for organizing a communications plan including social media and traditional media, maintaining an active website for The CDNC, and regularly updating The CDNC social networking sites.
- (b) The Director of Communications of The CDNC shall be responsible for creating press packages and strategies for The CDNC programs and events.
- (c) The Director of Communications of The CDNC shall recommend members to serve as members of the Communications Committee and oversee the operations of the committee.

(a) The Director of Programming of The CDNC shall be responsible for the implementation of the programming initiatives of The CDNC.

Section 13: The Director of Membership of The CDNC.

(a) The Director of Membership of The CDNC shall be responsible for updating current contact information of chapter officers for each chapter of The CDNC, maintain relationships with chapter leaders, and organizing plans to maintain statewide membership.

(b) The Director of Membership shall implement and oversee the yearly chapter chartering process prior to the annual convention.

Section 14: The Director of Compliance of The CDNC.

(a) The Director of Compliance of The CDNC shall be responsible for keeping The CDNC in good standing with the Federal Elections Commission and the North Carolina State Board of Elections at all times. This person shall be appointed by the President with majority approval of the executive board

Section 15: Vacancy of an Officer Position.

(a) The position of an officer may be vacated only one of two ways: by written resignation to the Executive Board, or by a Vote of No Confidence by the Executive Board.

(b) The procedure for a Vote of No Confidence shall be as follows:

(1) A permanent member of the Executive Board must charge the officer with the reasons for his or her removal publicly at a meeting of the Executive Board.

(2) The officer in question must be offered an opportunity to defend him or herself at that meeting or, in the case of their absence from that meeting, at the next regular meeting.

(3) After a period of two weeks the issue shall be put to a vote. Three-fourths of the permanent members of the Executive Board must vote for removal for an officer to be removed.

(c) The President of The CDNC shall be ineligible to vote in a Vote of No Confidence except in the case of a tied vote (as determined by this Constitution) or if the Vote is brought up against that individual. Should the Vote of No Confidence be against the President of The CDNC, that portion of the meeting shall be chaired by the Vice-President of The CDNC (making this individual ineligible to vote except in the case of a tied vote as determined by this Constitution) and the President of the CDNC shall be eligible to vote in the matter.

ARTICLE V

Election of Officers

Section 1: Occurrence. Officers of The CDNC are elected annually at The CDNC State Convention.

Section 2: Eligibility. In addition to meeting the eligibility requirements detailed in Article 4, Section 1 of this Constitution, individuals must meet the following criteria to be elected at The CDNC State Convention:

- (a) Must submit an email to the Elections Chair of The CDNC no later than seven calendar days prior to the first event of the Convention giving notice of the position or positions the individual intends on running for.
- (b) The Elections Chair shall be the highest ranking member of the Executive Board, in accordance with Article III, Section 1 of this document, not seeking re-election and shall be tasked with presiding over elections of The CDNC officers at the annual convention.
- (c) Candidates for office must be present at the Convention during the election of the position with the exception of those with military or civil service, illness, or a death in the family.
- (d) In the case that no one declares candidacy for a position, nominations will be brought up on the floor.
- (e) Any potential candidate may request to open nominations from the floor. They must receive two-thirds vote of CDNC members present to open nominations.

Section 3: Procedure. The procedure of elections shall be held in the following manner:

- (a) At the meeting, the Elections Chair of The CDNC shall announce the position and the names of the candidates running for the position.
- (b) In alphabetical order, each candidate will give a speech not to exceed five minutes to the members of the meeting.
- (c) Upon the conclusion of the speeches, a five minutes recess will be held.
- (d) After the five minute recess, the Elections Chair of The CDNC will tally the votes by chapter.
 - (1) The Elections Chair of The CDNC will announce the chapter's name in alphabetical order.
 - (2) The President of the chartered chapter (or his or her delegate leader, in their absence) will announce the total number of votes for their chapter for each candidate.
- (e) When all chapters have voted, the votes will be tallied by the Elections Chair of the CDNC and the winner will be announced.
- (f) Elections shall be held in the following order:
 - (1) President of The CDNC.
 - (2) Vice-President of The CDNC.
 - (3) State Council Chair of The CDNC.
 - (4) State Council Vice Chair of The CDNC.
 - (5) State Council Secretary of The CDNC.
 - (6) Director of Political Affairs of The CDNC.
 - (7) Director of Communications of The CDNC.
 - (8) Director of Development of The CDNC.
 - (9) Director of Programming of The CDNC.
 - (10) Director of Membership of The CDNC.
- (g) The number of votes per chapter will be equal to 10 votes. Each chapter can allocate those votes to candidates however they choose by the division of whole numbers.
- (h) In the event that a chapter may not be present at convention, the chapter may be presented with an absentee ballot, by the beginning of formal convention proceedings, in the form of a Google Form, to cast votes for all positions among declared candidates. The absentee ballot (Google Form) will include the option to select a designated college democrat to proxy their vote to in the event the chapter is not able to be present at convention; the chapter president will decide whether the proxy is instructed in their votes, or the proxy will have the power to designate votes as they choose. In the event of nominations being taken on the floor, the vote cast for that position on the absentee ballot will be discarded unless the proxy was designated for a candidate who is still in the race. All absentee ballots must be received by one hour previous to the official start of the College Democrats of North Carolina election session on the Sunday of convention.

ARTICLE VI

Amendments

Section 1: General. The Constitution may be amended by a two-thirds majority vote of the Executive Board and by a majority vote of chartered chapter presidents.

Section 2: Procedure. The following procedure shall be used to amend the Constitution:

(a) A permanent member of the Executive Board shall propose the amendment to the Executive Board at a regular meeting.

(b) The amendment will be discussed, and all members of the Executive Board and all Chapter Presidents will be notified of the amendment.

(c) At the next regular meeting, a second debate will be held over the amendment. This meeting shall be open to all Chapter Presidents, who will be allowed to participate. At the conclusion of the debate, the President of The CDNC will call a vote of the Executive Board and – should the amendment pass – the President of The CDNC will call a vote of the present Chapter Presidents. Should a majority of present Chapter Presidents vote in favor of the amendment, the amendment shall pass and be enacted immediately.
