EXHIBITOR BOOTH REGISTRATION FORM

Section A: GENERAL RULES AND REGULATIONS

This document details the rules and regulations for exhibiting and exhibitor participation at the Eighth Annual Diversity Summit Exhibits, as defined in Section B, "Show Specifics". By registering for the Eighth Annual Diversity Summit Exhibits, the exhibitor agrees to be bound by these rules and regulations.

1. INSTALLATION AND DISMANTLING OF EXHIBITS

Exhibits must be completely installed and finished prior to summit opening. Staff person will not be required to remain in place during the workshop session. Therefore, HACH or committee members of the Diversity Summit will not be held liable for any broken or stolen items. Information for installation and dismantling of exhibits will be sent prior to the event.

2. FIRE, SAFETY AND HEALTH

The exhibitor assumes all responsibility for compliance with local, city and state ordinances and regulations covering fire, safety and health. All exhibit equipment and materials will be reasonably located within the booth and protected by safety guards and devices where necessary. Only fireproof materials should be used in displays and the necessary fire precautions will be taken by the exhibitor. Aisles surrounding the exhibitor's space must be kept clear. Exhibitors are expected to construct booths in such a manner that will accommodate expected attendees within the confines of their licensed exhibit space.

3. FILM, SOUND DEVICES AND LIGHTING

Photography and audio recording within the exhibit area are permitted only if it is maintained at a reasonable level and is not objectionable to neighboring exhibitors. HACH reserves the right to restrict or prohibit the use of any objectionable lighting, unwarranted noise, or other effects which could otherwise distract from the exhibits as a whole.

4. SUBLICENSING OF SPACE

Only one company shall be considered as the exhibitor, and no other company is licensed to use the assigned booth space. The exhibitor shall not reassign or sublicense either all, or part, of the licensed space. The exhibitor agrees to not have representatives, equipment or materials from any other companies in their booth. Subsidiaries or affiliates are excluded from this requirement.

5. EXHIBITOR'S PERSONNEL AND OTHER CONSIDERATIONS

- ✓ HACH reserves the right to prohibit an exhibit or any part of an exhibit including promotional materials and graphics that in its sole judgment may be considered objectionable to the exhibits as a whole.
- ✓ Exhibitors are prohibited from having live animals as part of their exhibit.
- ✓ Undignified methods of attracting attention will not be permitted. Booth activities, costumes, or presentations, which are undignified, tasteless, racist, sexist or otherwise offensive, are prohibited.
- ✓ Tampering with another exhibitor's booth or equipment is not permitted. Exhibitor's personnel should act courteously and not crowd other company's booths.
- ✓ Exhibitor employees and related personnel in the exhibit hall must follow a professional dress code and be attired in a businesslike, professional and tasteful manner.
- ✓ Exhibitor's personnel shall conduct themselves in a professional manner at all times.
- ✓ Exhibits must be staffed at all times during the exhibit's opening hours.
- ✓ Exhibitors are not permitted to arrange any seminars, lectures, hospitality events etc. concurrent with the exhibit's opening hours, that would detract or otherwise deter attendance to the exhibits.
- ✓ All display materials, signs, etc. should be professionally produced. Any display deemed unprofessional in appearance will not be permitted.

- ✓ Exhibitors are prohibited from promoting, advertising or otherwise displaying information or invitations to seminars, meetings, or events that may be construed by HACH to be conflicting with the conference and exhibits as a whole.
- ✓ Canvassing in the exhibits or advertising on behalf of non-exhibiting companies is forbidden.
- ✓ Any unusual or atypical activity planned by the exhibitor must be reviewed and approved by HACH prior to the exhibits opening.

6. CANCELLATION OF THE EXHIBITS

Should extenuating circumstances prevent the conference from being held (e.g. fire, flood, at the designated exhibit space) HACH will first strive to make alternative arrangements. If HACH is unable to provide suitable alternatives, exhibitor’s registration fees will be refunded less any costs incurred by HACH.

7. PAYMENT AND CANCELLATION POLICY.

Full payment upon application and exhibitor registration is required. The following refund policy will apply in the case of cancellation for any reason: A 50% refund of the fee is applicable for cancellations prior to 90 days of the exhibits opening. No refund will be granted for cancellation less 90 days of the exhibits opening.

Cancellations must be in writing to the designate Eighth Annual Diversity Exhibits Coordinator.

8. VIOLATION OF THE RULES

HACH, at its sole discretion, determines an exhibitor has violated these rules, the violating exhibitor will be warned and given an opportunity to remedy the situation. If the exhibitor fails to correct the violation, HACH reserves the right to terminate the exhibitor’s involvement in the conference and remove any/all material, any/all personnel, force cessation of a given activity, and bar the exhibitor from future participation at HACH events.

In witness to their understanding and agreement to these terms and conditions, the parties hereby affix their signatures below.
