

Jessie Branson, Volunteer Missionary to Galim, Cameroon Prayer Letter 2018

Who Am I?

In the words of one of my sisters, "Jessie Branson is the eldest of eight children, a competent leader, and very capable, especially when it comes to motivating her siblings to do their chores, cleaning the house and occasionally assisting in their schooling. She has been very passionate about missions from a young age, and has participated in several successful fundraisers and short-term mission trips, including Nicaragua and Nigeria. She will be travelling to Cameroon in mid-2018 for the second time, to aid the Kuhn family in their ministry. Jessie is a strong, Bible-believing Christian, who enjoys actively serving Christ."

What is the first thing that comes to mind when you think of a missionary? Maybe evangelism or Bible translation? Now imagine trying to balance homeschooling, housework, ministry and family life all at once. It would be hectic and stressful to juggle all these commitments. This is what missionaries with young families endeavour to do on a daily basis, in a different culture, climate and belief system from what they are accustomed.

I have been requested by the Kuhns to come to Cameroon and serve alongside them for a year. I have prayed extensively about this opportunity to serve God and assist the Kuhn family in their work, and I have decided that this is what God is calling me to do. My duties will include cooking, cleaning, childcare, ministry support and local community involvement.

There are many obstacles to overcome in order for me to get there, and I would certainly appreciate your prayer as I move forward in this direction. Thank you for your assistance and prayers.

TOP FOUR Prayer Requests

That I would have a soft heart towards God and His will for my life

②

That I would be prepared, mentally, physically and spiritually for this ministry

③

That God would pave the way for a healthy, productive relationship with the Kuhns

④

That God would provide the $15,000 necessary to support me

For everyone who calls on the name of the LORD will be saved. How then can they call on Him in whom they have not believed? And how are they to believe in Him of whom they have never heard? And how are they to hear without someone preaching? (Romans 10:13-14)
