DEAR BETHANY FAMILY...

Thank you for the love you have shown our family during the difficult time of our mother's death. Bethany has been there through all of our family's milestones. Mom and dad were married at Bethany when it was the little church on Cornell. All 4 of us were baptized, taught Bible stories and graduated from Catechism at Bethany and by it's members. You were there for us when we said good-bye to dad and again now. Thank you for the cards, kind words, hugs, prayers, memorial gifts, flowers, plants, and food (meals upon meals). Thank you to Sharon King and her staff for the wonderful meal following the service. Thanks also for the donations of salads, almond bars, and other desserts. We appreciate and love our Bethany family.

NEW FACILITY COORDINATOR...

Please contact Vonnie Whitmore, our new coordinator, with any church reservations you need.

THANK YOU...

David and Joan appreciate the prayers offered, the kindness expressed in so many different ways, and the beautiful flower from our Bethany family. God was experienced and glorified even through this time of earthly sadness. Thank you!

Though I have taken three years of Greek and Hebrew, if I have not love, I am becoming a scholarly windbag. And though I teach a Sunday School or Midweek class, and come to every worship service, and though I have mixed only one week of visitation (when I had the flu), if I have not love, I am nothing.

And though I tithe every week, and always have my Bible study lesson done on time, and have driven the kids Sunday School class to the lake once, and though I invited the pastor's family over for dinner last month, if I have not love, the whole thing means nothing.

Love keeps on loving, when others don't love back.

Love doesn't get jealous when the next door neighbor can afford a BMW.

Love isn't rude to the persistent salesperson.

Love is gracious when the line you have been standing in for an hour closes just as you reach the counter.

Love is not happy when your lazy partner at work finally gets laid off.

Love keeps on loving, even when embarrassed by your teenager's hair, clothes, music or friends.

Love isn't thwarted by ten hours of screaming kids, coiled diapers, dirty dishes, and a perpetual mess in the living room.

And now abide faith, hope, and love, these three; but the greatest of these is genuine love that keeps on loving... because God did!
