Professional Tarot Reading

International Metaphysical Practitioners Association

Tarot Readers provide their services at a range of venues and through a wide range of outlets. It can be lucrative as well as deeply rewarding. Whilst many readers do have a professional attitude to their work, there is, at the moment, no regulation or standard code of ethics to which they need to subscribe.

There are several professional organisations, TABI being one in the UK. They outline a code of practice they want members to follow, but of course not everyone wants to join such organisations.

This course is for:

- Those with some knowledge of The Tarot
- Those who wish to become professional Tarot Readers and Advisors
- Those seeking to sign-up to a professional code of ethics and practice
- Those seeking to take their business to the next level
- Those wanting to demonstrate their professionalism to potential clients and bookers.
